ORACLE + GIANTS

Since officially opening its doors on April 11, 2000, Oracle Park has been the crown jewel of Major League ballparks. Countless memories have been made by the millions of fans that have entered the ballpark's gates. World Series victories, no-hitters, a perfect game, Splash Hits, an All-Star Game, a home run chase and countless stars have been a part of the on-field memories made at the corner of Third and King.

Off the field, the biggest and brightest musical acts have played on the shores of McCovey Cove. Bruce Springsteen, Metallica, AC/DC, Guns N' Roses, Kenny Chesney, Ed Sheeran, Dead & Co., Dave Matthews Band, The Beach Boys, Lady Gaga and countless others have added to the memories made here.

Bat Kid saved The City here in 2014, rugby brought its World Cup Sevens event to the ballpark in 2018, the 34th America's Cup took place out in the waters of San Francisco Bay in 2013 and some of the best footballers in the world have visited Oracle for games.

Now 25 years in with plenty more to go, Oracle Park continues to show why it's one of the premier ballparks in the country.

Larry Baer ▸▸▸ President & Chief Executive Officer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. Baer joined the team in 1992 as the executive vice president after he and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group that kept the Giants in San Francisco. A limited partner and board member of the ownership group, Baer was named CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years. In 2021, the Giants won an all-time franchise record 107 games and the National League West title.

Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day operations of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed Oracle Park -- the first privately financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, Oracle Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." In 2008, Oracle Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award. The Giants enjoyed a National League home record sellout streak of 530 games spanning six seasons from 2011–2016.

Baer also serves as a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major transactions. This includes the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992, the naming rights agreement with AT&T (then Pacific Bell) in 1996, the naming rights agreement with Oracle in 2019 and other strategic partnerships. He led the effort to host the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco and was the driving force behind the Giants partnership with Comcast to create the NBC Sports Bay Area regional sports network.

Baer serves as Chairman and CEO of Giants Development Services overseeing Mission Rock – the new, mixed-use urban neighborhood located on a 28-acre site across McCovey Cove from Oracle Park. At full completion, Mission Rock will include parks and open space, residential units, office space (including the global headquarters of Visa, Inc.), retail, restaurants and a parking structure. Phase I of the project is nearing completion with two residential towers offering below market units for middle-income families, an eight-story commercial building and the 13-floor office building housing Visa's global headquarters. In addition, restaurants and retail stores have opened, along with China Basin Park – a five-acre park with walking and biking trails and open spaces for the community to gather.

In 2021, Baer helped launch and was named co-chair of "Advance SF"—a coalition of San Francisco CEO's and business leaders committed to building a vibrant city that works for all. In January 2022, Baer joined the advisory board of the American Journalism Project, based in New York City, aiming to expand the voices in local and regional media.

Baer has served on numerous Major League Baseball boards including chairing the Strategic Planning Committee, the Business and Media Board, and the International Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Council and NBC Sports Bay Area. Baer also serves on the Bay Area Host Committee, which was instrumental in bringing the 2026 FIFA World Cup to the Bay Area. He is a past governing board member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, appointed by President Barack Obama in 2016.

A graduate of UC Berkeley and Harvard Business School, Baer previously worked in the media industry for Westinghouse Broadcasting and CBS, Inc. At CBS, Baer was special assistant to Chairman Laurence Tisch. Baer has been the recipient of prestigious awards throughout his career with the Giants. In 2010, Baer was named "Person of the Year" by San Francisco Boys and Girls Clubs, and in 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year." In 2014, Baer was honored by the University of California, Berkeley with its "Excellence in Achievement" award and received the Civic Leadership Award from the American Jewish Committee. Baer and his wife, Pam, co-chaired the Campaign to Rebuild San Francisco General Hospital, which was completed in 2016.

Larry and Pam reside in San Francisco and have four children.

Buster Posey ▸▸▸ President of Baseball Operations

A three-time World Series Champion and seven-time All-Star as a player, Buster Posey enters his first season as the president of baseball operations for the Giants, moving into the role on September 30, 2024. Posey was the Giants' fifth overall pick in the 2008 draft and spent his entire 12-year playing career in the Giants' organization beginning with his Major League debut on September 11, 2009. After retiring from the field in November, 2021, Posey joined the Giants' ownership group in September 2022, becoming the 31st principal partner in the Giants' ownership group. He also joined the team's six-person board of directors. The 37-year-old was the first former player to join the Giants as a principal partner and serve on the board of directors. He is also the youngest member of the ownership group.

In 2010, Posey helped lead the Giants to the first of their three World Series titles in San Francisco while also being named the National League Rookie of the Year after hitting .305 with 18 homers, 67 RBI and an .862 OPS. Posey finished 11th in the MVP voting that season. After his 2011 season ended prematurely due to injury after 45 games, Posey burst back on to the scene in 2012 to help lead the Giants to their second World Series title in three seasons. Named the 2012 National League MVP and the NL's Comeback Player of the Year, Posey led the NL in batting average (.336) while posting the best OPS+ of his career (171). He was named an All-Star for the first time and won the first of his five Silver Slugger awards after setting career-bests in batting average, doubles (39), homers (24), RBI (103), walks (69), OBP (.408), slugging (.549) and OPS (.957). By winning the World Series and being voted the league's MVP, Posey became the third catcher in MLB history to accomplish the feat, joining Yogi Berra (1951 Yankees) and Roy Campanella (1955 Dodgers).

Posey helped lead the Giants to their third World Series title in five seasons in 2014, won his second Silver Slugger Award and finished sixth in the MVP voting after hitting .311 with 22 homers, 89 RBI and an .854 OPS. He was named to four straight All-Star teams from 2015-2018, won two more Silver Sluggers (2015, 2017) and captured his first Gold Glove award in 2016.

After opting out of the 2020 season, Posey returned to his All-Star form in 2021, earning his seventh Midsummer Classic selection and his fifth career Silver Slugger. He was named both The Sporting News and the MLB Player's Choice National League Comeback Player of the Year during his final season after hitting .304 with 23 doubles, 18 homers, 56 RBI and an .889 OPS in 113 games for the National League West Division champs.

In San Francisco Giants history (1958-present), Posey ranks among the club's all-time leaders in batting average (min. 3,000 PA) (3rd, .302), doubles (4th, 293), home runs (11th, 158), RBI (7th, 729), walks (7th, 540), OBP (5th, .372), SLG (11th, .460), OPS (9th, .831) and games played (6th, 1,371). His 1,063 starts behind the plate are the most all-time in franchise history.

In postseason play, Posey caught 511 career innings across his five postseason appearances with SF, seventh-most all-time behind Jorge Posada (996.1), Yadier Molina (868.1), Berra (544.1), Jason Varitek (528.0), Martín Maldonado (521.0) and Russell Martin (518.2). Posey's 2.71 career postseason catcher's ERA is fourth-best all-time (min. 200 postseason innings caught) behind Mike Scioscia (2.41), Bill Dickey (2.51) and Mickey Cochrane (2.63). Posey was behind the plate for 14 total shutouts in the postseason, the most of any catcher in postseason history ahead of Molina (eight) and Berra (seven). Posey's 58 career postseason games, 57 postseason hits and his 25 postseason RBI are all the most by a Giant in franchise history. He is also one of six Giants to hit at least five postseason homers.

Posey ended his Major League career as one of the game's greatest catchers, posting a career 44.8 WAR according to Stathead, eighth best for any catcher since 1950 behind Johnny Bench (75.1), Gary Carter (70.2), Ivan Rodríguez (68.7), Carlton Fisk (68.5), Mike Piazza (59.5), Yogi Berra (53.6) and Thurman Munson (46.1). All of that group but Munson have been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Overall, his 44.9 career WAR is 12th-best among catchers in Major League history. The Leesburg, GA native finished his playing career with a .302 career average, exactly 1,500 regular season hits, 293 doubles, 158 homers, 729 RBI and an .831 career OPS. He is one of three catchers to win at least three World Series titles and catch at least three no-hitters.

Off the field, Buster and his wife, Kristen, have committed their unwavering support to finding better treatments and cures for pediatric cancer. In 2016, the Posey's established BP28 with a commitment to stand with those families affected by pediatric cancer and focus on awareness, fundraising and patient/family support. In addition to his work with BP28, Posey served as the Junior Giants Commissioner for most of his playing career and as a supporter of the Giants Community Fund, most notably hosting a Glove Giveaway each season and contributing to the Fund's mission of using baseball and softball to promote health, education and character development for youth in underserved communities.

Bob Melvin was named the 39th manager in Giants history on October 23, 2023.

Melvin, 63, just completed his 21st season as a manager in 2024, and his first in a Giants uniform. In those 21 seasons, Melvin has guided his teams to eight postseason appearances that include four division titles and two trips to the League Championship Series (2007 with Arizona and 2022 with San Diego). He was also a bench coach on the 2001 Arizona Diamondbacks club that won the World Series.

In his 21 years as a Major League manager, he's garnered three Manager of the Year awards (2007 with Arizona and 2012 & 2018 with Oakland).

He owns a lifetime managerial winning percentage of .514, compiling a 1,597-1,507 record during the regular season over his 21 years of managing. His 1,597 regular season wins rank 24th all-time and are third-most among active managers behind, Bruce Bochy (2,171) and Terry Francona (1,950). Melvin also enters the 2025 season with 3,104 games managed, ranking 21st all-time.

Born in Palo Alto, Melvin attended Menlo-Atherton High School before continuing his education at Cal Berkeley for his freshman season where he helped lead the Golden Bears to a third-place finish in the 1980 College World Series. Melvin later returned to the Bay Area during his Major League career to spend three seasons with the Giants from 1986-1988. He played more games in a Giants uniform than any other team, appearing in 265 of his 692 career games with San Francisco. Melvin also played for Detroit (41 games), Baltimore (257), Kansas City (32), Boston (77), New York-AL (9) and Chicago-AL (11).

Prior to joining the Giants, he spent two seasons as the manager of the San Diego Padres where he went 171-153 (.528). In 2022, Melvin's first year in San Diego, he piloted the Padres to an 89-73 regular season record and a Wild Card berth that saw the Padres advance to the NLCS for the third time in team history (and first time since 1998) before losing to the Philadelphia Phillies. In 2023, Melvin's Padres went 82-80 but finished the season strong, having the league's best record from September 1 through the end of the regular season (20-7).

Prior to his two-year stint in San Diego, he managed the A's from 2011-2021, leading them to six postseason appearances in 11 years at the helm. Melvin's six postseason appearances with the A's (2012-14, 18-20) were the most by a manager in Oakland history and trailed only Connie Mack, who had eight World Series appearances in Athletics history. His 853 wins are the most by a manager in Oakland A's history.

His managerial career began in 2003 with the Seattle Mariners where he managed the 2003 and 2004 seasons. He was then hired by the Diamondbacks for the 2005 season and managed the D-Backs from 2005-09, leading them to a 337-340 mark that included a 90-win season in 2007 and a NL West division title.

Ryan Christenson enters his second season with the Giants after two years on San Diego's coaching staff. He was the Padres' bench coach in 2022 and was the team's associate manager in 2023 under skipper Bob Melvin.

Prior to his brief stint in San Diego, Christenson spent 16 seasons with the Oakland Athletics. He was Melvin's bench coach for the A's from 2018-2021. Before his promotion to the Major League staff in Oakland, the Redlands, CA native spent five seasons managing in the Athletics farm system. After Single-A stints at Beloit in 2013 and Stockton in 2014, he guided Double-A Midland to back-to-back Texas League Championships in 2015 and 2016.

Christenson served as manager at Triple-A Nashville in 2017 and also manned the third base coaching box for Team USA in the 2017 All-Star Futures Game. His teams had a 391-307 (.560) record in five seasons.

The former outfielder played parts of six seasons in the Majors with Oakland (1998-2001), Arizona (2001), Milwaukee (2002) and Texas (2003) and was a .222 hitter with 16 home runs and 102 RBI in 452 games.

His best season came in his rookie campaign in 1998 when he hit .257 with five home runs and 40 RBI, all career highs. Christenson batted .237 in 351 games in his four seasons with the A's and was a member of the 2000 American League West champions. His playing career concluded at Triple-A Albuquerque in the Marlins farm system in 2004.

He was originally selected by the A's in the 10th round of the 1995 First-Year Player Draft out of Pepperdine University after earning West Coast Conference Player of the Year honors in his final season with the Waves, leading the league with a .376 batting average.

He resides in Scottsdale, AZ, with his wife, Micki, and children, Cassidy and Cameron.

Has famously penned the lineup for that day's game in calligraphy on a board in the clubhouse since he has been a bench coach in the Majors. When he was young, his grandmother gave him a calligraphy pen, and he practiced as a child. According to Ryan, his normal handwriting is terrible, and he only uses calligraphy for writing out lineups. The lineup card penned by Christenson for the Giants' game at historic Rickwood Field in 2024 is now in Cooperstown.

Set a then Brewers franchise record with 31 homers as a shortstop. The 31 homers at SS tied the Rangers' Corey Seager for the Major League lead.

MVP

Named Brewers MVP for the second straight season as he led the team in RBI (98), doubles (31), total bases (258) and extra-base hits (62).

Was the National League Player of the Week on May 1 after going 9-for-29 (.310) with four homers and 10 RBI in seven games.

Recorded a career-high seven RBI with his four-hit game on April 26 at Pittsburgh. Became one of two shortstops in Brewers history to have a seven-RBI game.

2023 SEASON

Played for Team Dominican Republic in the World Baseball Classic.

100

Belted his 100th career homer on May 7 at San Francisco off RHP Ross Stripling.

Hit .571 (4-for-7) with one RBI in the NL Wild Card Series vs. Arizona.

WILL-POWER

- Since 2021, Adames leads the Majors in homers (112) and RBI (360) among shortstops.
- He is one of five shortstops to post a .700 OPS or better in every season since 2018, and his .967 career fielding percentage at shortstop is fifth best among those with at least 750 games at the position.
- He's also one of four shortstops to post a 3.0 bWAR or better in each of the last four seasons, joining New York-NL's Francisco Lindor, Texas' Corey Seager and Philadelphia's Trea Turner.

To help Adames become a better hitter, Hall of Famer Barry Larkin taught him how to box. The key, Larkin says, is being rotational with the lower half while staying linear with the upper half. Adames trained with Larkin in Orlando, FL in the 2018-19 offseason after making his Major League debut with the Rays.

Choose to wear #2 with the Giants because Derek Jeter was his favorite player growing up.

Was Milwaukee's nominee for the MLBPAA's Heart and Hustle Award in both 2021 and 2024. The award is presented annually to an active player who demonstrates a passion for the game of baseball and best embodies the values, spirit and traditions of the game.

CAREER NOTES |

As a sophomore in 2019, Bailey was named First Team All-ACC, ABCA All-Region and Collegiate Baseball Third Team All-American.

14

Was one of 14 semifinalists for the Buster Posey Award in 2019, given to the nation's best catcher. He was named to USA Baseball's Collegiate National team roster.

Despite the shortened 2020 season, he ranked tied for second in RBI (20), third in walks (17) and tied for fourth in home runs (six) among all ACC players.

2021 SEASON

Appeared in 33 games and hit .185 with a .586 OPS with High-A Eugene. Reassigned to the Arizona Complex League on June 26 and eventually assigned to Single-A San Jose on July 12 where he finished the year.

Played in 47 games with the SJ Giants, hitting .322 with a .946 OPS, 16 doubles, seven homers and 24 RBI to help them capture the Low-A West Championship.

Named the Low-A West Player of the Week for the week of August 23-29.

Played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League after the season, hitting .292 with three doubles, one homer, five RBI, a .375 OBP and a .792 OPS and was named to the AFL Rising Stars Game.

2022 SEASON

Earned a MiLB Gold Glove at High-A Eugene. He played 72 games at catcher and posted a .989 fielding percentage. He caught 29-of-97 basestealers (29.9%).

Named to the NWL Post-Season All-Star team and was named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star.

2023 SEASON

Named one of three finalists for a National League Gold Glove award in his first MLB season.

His +16 catcher framing runs and 52.9% strike rate were both tops in MLB (Statcast). His pop time of 1.87 to second base was tied for second-best in MLB behind PHI's J.T. Realmuto (1.83).

His 2.8 fWAR was second among SF position players behind IF Thairo Estrada (3.9).

Bailey's +13 DRS led SF and were third in MLB among catchers, behind ARI's Gabriel Moreno (20) and TOR's Alejandro Kirk (17).

His 20 catcher caught stealings were the most by a rookie since PHI's Jorge Alfaro had 21 in 2018.

His 12 RBI through his first 11 career games were second-most in franchise history, behind only Willard Marshall's 15 in 1942.

Had an 18-game on-base streak from June 9-July 2, the longest on-base streak by a Giants rookie since OF Mike Yastrzemski in 2019.

Married NC State college sweetheart, Leigha Bruce. They have one daughter, Briella, who was born September 2022 and a son, Banks Lee, born in October 2024.

Leigha graduated from NC State as a sports management major with a minor in journalism. She worked as a sportswriter and broadcaster during and after college.

START 'EM YOUNG

When Bailey was eight years old he began attending North Carolina Baseball Academy run by Scott Bankhead, a former big-league pitcher. By the age of 12 or 13 he was catching exclusively. The first big leaguer he ever caught was Yimi Garcia.

Patrick was home-schooled through middle school and then decided to attend high school at Wesleyan Christian Academy in High Point, NC where he joined the same baseball program that produced Wil Myers.

As a junior at Wesleyan Christian in 2016, he was selected for the U-18 US national baseball team. As a senior, he batted .510 with 5 HRs and 33 RBI.

After finding out he was being called up to SF, his first call was to his wife, Leigha. His second was to Craig Albernaz, former Giants Bullpen Coach and Catching Coordinator, who was a mentor to Bailey. Albernaz is now the associate manager on Stephen Vogt's staff in Cleveland.

Faith is really important to Bailey and is something that has always been important in his life.

- Made seven appearances for SF (one start) and worked 16.0 innings with three earned runs (1.69 ERA) and 14 strikeouts.
- Threw at least 2.0 innings in five of his seven games.
- Was activated off the 60-day IL on Sept. 1...missed the first 137 games of the season after undergoing surgery to remove an aneurysm from his upper right arm on March 4 at Stanford Medical Center...the surgery was performed by Dr. Jason Lee.
- Made five rehab starts for Triple-A Sacramento, logging a 7.90 ERA (12er, 13.2ip) with 17 strikeouts and three walks.
- Beck had entered Spring Training with a chance to be a mainstay on SF's Major League roster.

AT STANFORD

Selected by Milwaukee in the 34th-round of the 2015 draft but elected to attend Stanford.

In 2016 Beck became the third Stanford freshman to start Opening Day since 1988. Was named a first-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings and Baseball America.

Drafted again, this time by the Yankees in the 29th round of the 2017 MLB Draft as a sophomore despite not playing all season due to a stress fracture in his back. Elected to return to school for his junior year.

Drafted by Atlanta in the fourth round of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft as a junior. Beck received All-Pac-12 honors that year.

2019 SEASON

Acquired by the Giants at the deadline from Atlanta as part of the package in return for Mark Melancon

Selected to participate in the AFL. In six starts with Scottsdale he went 1-2 with a 3.63 ERA (9er, 22.1ip) with 23 strikeouts.

2020 SEASON

Did not play due to the Covid-19 pandemic. He and his younger brother, Brendan, were catch partners during the shutdown.

2021 SEASON

Tristan was a non-roster invite to Giants Spring Training but only saw action in one Spring Training game.

Worked a total of 111.1 innings between Double and Triple-A, the highest of any season in his pro career.

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 30 games as a reliever for SF in his first MLB season, going 3-2 with a 3.33 ERA (27er, 73.0ip) and a .235 opponents average. Made three starts for the Giants and posted a 0-1 record with a 7.50 ERA (10er, 12.0ip) and a .340 opponents average.

In his first career MLB start on August 27 vs. Atlanta, Beck retired the first 12 batters he faced through 4.0-perfect innings before allowing five-consecutive batters to reach base to start the 5th inning.

Recorded his first career save on May 26 at Milwaukee, pitching the final 3.1 innings in SF's 15-1 win.

OFF THE FIELD |

Graduated from Corona High School where as a senior he was named the 2015 Corona High School Male Athlete of the Year and earned 2015 First-Team All-State and All-Section honors.

Always carries a book on him. Gets a lot of reading done during flights and when he has downtime. Says the best book he read in 2024 was All My Octobers by Mickey Mantle.

The Yankees have actually drafted both Beck brothers, taking Tristan in 2017 (he returned to school) and Brendan in the second round in 2021 (he signed). Brendan missed all of the 2024 MiLB season due to injury.

Beck was a two-year starting quarterback during high school. He now enjoys throwing the football around pre-game to help loosen up his arm before getting into his baseball routine.

Considers Smucker's Uncrustables an essential item and a perfect snack. Has between 5-9 every day (either grape or strawberry).

Loves coffee. The first thing he does when he gets to the ballpark is grab a cold brew and pour it over ice. He has anywhere from 7-10 cups of coffee a day.

Tristan's mom Lucy (class of 1984) and older sister Megan (class of 2010) both attended Stanford. The Beck brothers helped their sister move in as a freshman. The tradition continued in 2016 with Tristan and in 2018 with younger brother, Brendan. The two were teammates for one season (2018) before Tristan got drafted.

OFF THE FIELD

Played baseball at Mattoon (IL) HS and was selected to the All Apollo Conference First Team. He helped Mattoon win the 2019 Conference Championship.

Hayden's father, Stacey, coached him through several levels of baseball, including summer baseball with Mattoon Post 88.

Majored in Exercise Science at EIU.

Growing up in Mattoon, IL (three hours south of Chicago), Hayden grew up a Cubs fan. His first career start in the Majors came against the Cubs at Oracle Park on June 26, 2024

According to his parents, Hayden's first word was ball. He slept with a baseball when he was young.

When he was a kid, his mother, Paula, mowed a diamond into the grass during the summer to play baseball (with a tennis ball), drawing a constant stream of neighborhood kids. If the ball hit a neighbor's house it was a homer.

COLLEGIATE CAREER

Played two years at Louisburg College in Louisburg, NC (2013 and 2014). He then transferred to Penn State after his sophomore season. He made the team his first fall on campus and then failed a drug test for marijuana. He remained on campus for the next two years while weathering a shoulder surgery hoping for another chance to crack PSU's team.

The chance never came and Bivens later told The Athletic, smoking "totally ruined my chances of playing there," he said. "It's a regret I'll have with me until the day I die."

Used an old couch on a giveaway site as a throwing partner in an unfinished basement in his apartment at State College to get his arm back in shape after surgery.

Landed a spot at Rogers State, a former NAIA program in Oklahoma that had recently jumped to Division II, for the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

2019 WITH SAVIGNY (FRANCE)

After going undrafted, he began his professional career pitching for the Savigny-sur-Orge Lions in French Division One earning $500 per month and playing only on the weekends. Posted a 2.51 ERA in about 75 innings with the Lions.

2020 SEASON

Was lined up to play for a Czech club called Kotlářka Praha in Prague. The spot came with an apartment as well as flights in and out of the country. Two weeks before he was set to leave, the pandemic hit and there was no season in Prague.

He returned stateside to pitch for the Steel City Slammies in the Washington (PA) COVID Pod League, one of very few leagues playing in 2020. He appeared in six games, making three starts.

2021 SEASON

Played for the Washington (PA) Wild Things but only appeared in nine games before being released.

Latched on with the West Virginia Power of the Atlantic League following his stint with the Wild Things. He played for the Power for two weeks before being traded to the Gastonia Honey Hurlers (NC) at the end of a two-week road trip.

2022 SEASON

Signed up for Tread Athletics, a pitching development company that offers training online, before the 2022 season. He added 25 pounds of muscle and worked with former Braves farmhand Troy Allen prior to returning to Gastonia in 2022.

Made three appearances with Gastonia, working 6.2 scoreless innings with nine strikeouts before he was signed by the Giants on May 16.

Posted a 2-1 record with a 2.70 (9er, 30.0ip) with 36 strikeouts in 21 games with Single-A San Jose after signing, his first experience in professional ball.

Promoted to Triple-A Sacramento and went 1-1 with a 6.75 ERA (10er, 13.1ip) in six games with the River Cats.

Was named an Arizona Fall League Rising Star after posting a 0.87 ERA (1er, 10.1ip) with 11 strikeouts and a 0.97 WHIP over seven games.

2023 SEASON

Split the season between High-A Eugene and Double-A Richmond, going 8-4 with a 3.68 ERA in 33 games (four starts). Struck out 92 batters over 93.0 innings.

He followed that up with a stint for Culiacan in the Mexican Winter League where he rattled off a 1.69 ERA in 27 games with 14 saves and 28 strikeouts.

Graduated from State College (PA) Area High School. Grew up with the hopes and dreams of playing collegiately (in some sport) for Penn State University.

Bivens has a tattoo on his left wrist of his home state of Pennsylvania. A star in the tattoo marks his hometown of State College.

Took a surprise trip to Dodger Stadium when he was roughly 10 years old with his mom, Caran Aikens. A young Bivens pretended to throw pitches from behind the mound and crashed into the wall making imaginary catches.

OFF THE FIELD

He and his wife, Elaine, were married in late 2023.

Attended Pedro Falu Orellano High School in Río Grande, Puerto Rico.

His father is named Ramon and his parents were going to name him after his dad but they decided on Raymond because they knew one day he would be a big leaguer and they wanted a name that sounded nice.

His second cousin, Obed Díaz, played in the Marlins organization from 2015-2018 as a pitcher.

Raymond likes to read books in both English and Spanish. Reading in English helped him learn the language as he'd look up words he didn't know.

In 2021, he started Tamo en Salsa, a 100% handmade sauce company, based in Luquillo, PR.

When Burgos made his MLB debut in 2024 he actually did not get to wear #78, his chosen number. The Giants were all wearing #24 on June 24 in honor of the recent passing of Willie Mays.

Wore "Hurtado" on the back of his Players Weekend jersey, honoring his college teammate and friend, Nick Hurtado, who died of bone cancer in 2013. "I know it was his dream, like a lot of my friends, to play in the major leagues, and he never got that opportunity," Chapman told reporters in 2019. "So I figured it would be the best way to represent him and be able to get his last name on a major league jersey and play a game in the big leagues, in a sense, so I thought it would be pretty cool."

Attended Cal State Fullerton for college. As a child, Chapman was a bat boy for the Titans from 2003-2005.

In 13 games in September, he posted a 0.00 ERA with a 0.65 WHIP and was named the National League Reliever of the Month.

When he's home in the offseason he likes to relax, hang with friends and he likes to fish.

Camilo grew up in a house in a small farm community with his mom, two brothers and a sister. The farm produced mostly yucca and plantains. Both his mom, Rosa, and father, Sergio, are farmers. They live on separate farms about two hours from one another. Rosa is now an elementary school teacher.

Bryce's grandfather, Ben Eldridge, is regarded as one of the greatest banjoists in the history of the genre. He was a founding member of The Seldom Scene, an influential bluegrass jam band that was nominated for four Grammy Awards. They recorded with stars like Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris. The group was inducted into the International Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame in Owensboro, KY.

Bryce's uncle, Chris, is a nine-time Grammy Award nominee. His band, Punch Brothers, won the Grammy for Best Folk Album in 2019. You can read more about it in The Athletic by clicking here.

Cole Foster, who was drafted by the Giants in 2023 out of Auburn, became a role model for Eldridge as he was one of the more mature players for the San Jose Giants. "I call Cole Foster, 'my little, big bro,' because he's a few years older than me but much smaller than I am. He's been my older brother figure out here. He's been through it."

Prior to focusing strictly on baseball full time, Bryce also played wide receiver and safety.

AWARDS |

NL ROOKIE OF THE MONTH
JULY 2024

2024 RECAP |

- Enjoyed a breakout rookie campaign for SF with his 132 wRC+ leading qualified rookies.
- Also ranked among Major League rookies (min 60g) in OPS (.831, 1st), average (.280, 2nd), SLG (.497, 2nd), OBP (.334, 5th) and home runs (15, T-6th).
- His 17 stolen bases led the team...the last Giants rookie with 17 (or more) steals was Rajai Davis who also had 17 in 2007.
- Fitzgerald's 2.3 fWAR after the break was tied for 10th-best in the NL.
- Finished the year with 3.0 fWAR...out of the eight MLB rookie position players to have a fWAR of at least 3.0, Fitzgerald was the only one to do so in less than 100 games (Sports Info Solutions).
- His 31.7% strikeout rate was seventh-highest in the NL (min. 300 PA).
- Appeared in 72 games at shortstop (67 starts)...also saw action at first base (two games), second base (six games), center field (eight games) and left field (four games)...also pitched in three games.
- Broke camp w/SF and made his first career Opening Day roster.
- Optioned to Triple-A Sacramento on May 19 after appearing in 18 games over the season's first six weeks and hitting .269 with a .751 OPS.
- Named PCL Player of the Week for the week of May 20-26, after hitting six homers and driving in 13 runs in six games.
- Recalled from Triple-A on May 28 and optioned back on June 9...recalled for a third and final time on June 28 and stuck on the MLB roster the rest of the year.

- After Nick Ahmed was designated for assignment on July 9, Fitzgerald was given some runway at shortstop and settled in.
- Homered in five consecutive starts from July 9 to July 23...it was the longest homer streak by a Giant since Barry Bonds did it in seven-straight contests (with an at-bat) in 2004 (eight homers)... no Giants rookie (since 1900) had ever homered in five straight games...Fitzgerald had just three home runs in 44 career games prior to the run.
- He joined Bonds (4x), Robby Thompson (1993), Jack Clark (1978), and Willie Mays (2x) as the only Giants to homer in five consecutive games since the franchise moved to San Francisco in 1958.
- His 12-game hitting streak from July 6-30 was the longest by an SF rookie since C Buster Posey had a 21-game streak July 4-28, 2010.
- Named July's NL Rookie of the Month, the fourth Giant to win the award all-time and first since Luis González in May 2022...the other two to win it were Pedro Feliz (July, 2021) and Buster Posey (July, 2010).
- He slashed .321/.390/.849 in July with two doubles, one triple, eight homers, 15 RBI and 13 runs scored in 16 games.
- Hit 11 homers in a 17-game span from July 9-Aug. 5, the fourth shortstop in NL/AL history to have such a stretch, joining Trea Turner (2023 w/PHI), Troy Tulowitzki (2010 w/COL) and Alex Rodríguez (2002 w/TEX).
- Was the first Giant to homer 11+ times in a 17-game span since Bonds in 2003...the only other Giants in team history to do this besides Fitzgerald and Bonds are Willie McCovey, Jim Ray Hart, Willie Mays, Walker Cooper and Mel Ott.
- Hit his 15th career home run on August 13, joining Mays as the only two in Giants franchise history with 15 or more home runs in their first 59 career games w/a PA...Mays had 16 homers in 59 games in 1951.

CAREER NOTES

AT LOUISVILLE

Selected by Boston in the 30th round of the 2016 draft out of high school but elected to attend Louisville.

Started 66-of-69 games at shortstop as a junior, hitting .315 with eight homers and a team-best 65 RBI.

Helped lead the Cardinals to a College World Series berth in 2019. Louisville lost to eventual champs Vanderbilt in the semis.

2020 SEASON

When the Covid-19 pandemic shut down minor league baseball the Lexington Legends and Florence Freedom formed the Battle of the Bourbon Trail league. The league was comprised of four teams: the Legends, the Leyendas, the Freedom and the Y'alls. They played Wednesday through Sunday for a seven-week span.

Fitzgerald played on the Y'alls and told the Richmond Times he used that time to tinker with his swing, adding a leg kick at the plate to better his timing.

2021 SEASON

Spent the entire year with High-A Eugene, hitting .262 with a .495 slugging percentage. He logged 28 doubles and 19 home runs over 103 games.

2022 SEASON

Was named the Flying Squirrels Most Valuable Player. Became the first 20-20 player in team history, clubbing 21 home runs and stealing 20 bases.

Set single-game Flying Squirrels team records with 13 total bases and five runs scored while also tying the team record with five hits on May 29 against Hartford.

2023 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on Sept. 21 at Los Angeles-NL and logged his first career hit, a double, in that game off Shelby Miller. He hit his first home run a day later, a two-run homer off Ryan Yarbrough.

Won Eastern League Player of the Month in April, and PCL Player of the Week May 14.

His 34 combined stolen bases between MiLB and MLB were a career-high and second-most in the SF organization behind Grant McCray (52).

Turned in his second consecutive 20+ homer, 20+ steal campaign.

Logged his first two MLB steals on September 27 vs. SD. He had a sprint speed of 29.5 ft/sec on the first stolen base, which was tied for the fastest stolen base by a Giant in 2023.

Graduated from Rochester (IL) High School where he played four seasons of baseball. In 2016 he was the No. 2 player in the state of Illinois according to Perfect Game and also was the Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year after hitting .500 with 15 doubles, nine homers and 42 steals as a senior.

He and his wife, Sadie, were married this past offseason in Louisville, KY.

Tyler and Sadie have a golden doodle named Kaiser.

He grew up rooting for the Atlanta Braves and the Atlanta Falcons despite living in Illinois. One of his favorite players was Chipper Jones.

Fitzgerald also used 2020 as a time to finish his finance degree at Louisville. He officially graduated in December of 2020.

THE FAM

His father Mike was a two-time first-round choice (1983 January and 1984 June secondary Drafts) and appeared in 13 games for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1988. His brother, also named Mike, played collegiate baseball at Indiana State and professionally with the San Diego Padres organization.

CAREER NOTES

2013-2018 WITH NEW YORK-NL

Made his Major League debut on his birthday (August 6, 2013). Was also signed by the Mets on his birthday in 2007 as a 16-year-old.

Received the Thurman Munson Award on February 7, 2017, given annually to New York City athletes for their work both on and off the field.

Appeared in 110 games despite being limited by injuries in 2017. He had an infection in his knee that required hospitalization in April and a broken nose suffered from a foul tip that ended his season in early September.

2019 SEASON

Played in 89 games on a one-year deal with Arizona, hit .317 and posted a .361 OBP with a .487 SLG in 89 games.

2020 SEASON

Led SF in games played (55) and home runs (12) and racked up 32 RBI (including six game-winning RBI) and 30 runs scored.

2021 SEASON

Was one of the most valuable players on the Giants' 107-win team, hitting .262 with 16 doubles, 18 home runs and a .335 OBP over 139 games.

In his 139 games, he played all over the infield, making 34 appearances at first base, 30 at second base, 58 at third base, pinch-hit 39 times and DH'd four times.

2022 SEASON

Set career bests in games played (151), doubles (28), RBI (71), runs scored (72) and walks (59) in his third season in San Francisco. Flores was named the Giants' Willie Mac Award winner at year's end.

2023 SEASON

Set full-season career-highs in HRs (23), OBP (.355), SLG (.509) and OPS (.864).

Led the Giants in home runs (23), SLG (.509), and OPS (.864) while finishing second in RBI (60).

OFF THE FIELD

FRIENDS

His favorite TV show is Friends and has used the show's theme song "I'll Be There For You" as his at-bat music. One of the ways he improved his English was by watching all 236 episodes.

He took English classes provided by the Mets and bolstered his language skills by watching American television with a dictionary by his side.

Wilmer loves clothes and is always dressed to impress. During the 2021 offseason, Wilmer's partner needed to renew her visa to enter the U.S. Since any U.S. Embassy would work, they decided to go to the U.S. Embassy in Milan, Italy, and make a vacation of it. During their week in Milan, he and his wife bought two new suitcases to carry all the new Italian clothes back to Venezuela.

His favorite home-cooked meal (and his favorite food overall) is pasticho, which he describes is like lasagna but a little different.

Loves pizza and typically has it on Sundays. Some of his favorite toppings are pepperoni, cheese, ham, corn (which he admits they don't put on pizza much in the US) and anchovies.

WILMER?

Flores grew up in a family of eight that included three brothers and two sisters. Three of the four sons are named Wilmer, however, no one but dad gets to be called Wilmer. SF's Wilmer is called "Catire" (pronounced kah-tear-ay) by his family for his blonde hair as a baby (Catire is Venezuelan slang for a blondie).

His youngest brother, Wilmer De Jesus Flores, is called "Chiquito," meaning "little" and his other brother, Wilmer Rafael Flores, is called "Patacon," which is a popular Venezuelan dish made from fried plantains. Flores' oldest brother (and the only one that isn't named Wilmer) is named Ronny.

Wilmer De Jesus Flores (also a baseball player) is a pitcher in the Detroit Tigers organization. Wilmer De Jesus reached Triple-A Toledo last season as a reliever.

It shouldn't come as a surprise then that when the Giants' Wilmer and his partner, Ivonelis, had their first baby in March of 2023 they named him Wilmer José.

CAREER NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL (DE LA SALLE)

Committed to play at UCLA before signing with SF after being drafted by the Giants in the third round of the 2020 draft.

Played for the 18U Team USA Baseball team in 2019, winning a silver medal at the WBSC U18 Baseball World Cup in South Korea.

2021 SEASON

Spent the season at Single-A San Jose where he struck out 157 in 98.2 innings over 23 starts pitching in his backyard.

Named the California League's Pitcher of the Year after his terrific season in San Jose.

2022 SEASON

Joined Richmond in late-May. At 20-years-old when he debuted, he became the youngest pitcher in franchise history.

Finished second in the minors with 186 strikeouts. Only D-Backs prospect Brandon Pfaadt had more (218).

Averaged 14.81 strikeouts per 9.0 innings, the highest rate for a pitcher in the minors (min. 100ip) in a season dating back to 1960.

2023 SEASON

Started the year at Triple-A Sacramento and made 20 starts, going 1-3 with a 4.66 ERA (34er, 65.2ip) and struck out 105 of the 295 (35.6%) batters he faced.

Had his contract selected and made his debut on August 22 at Philadelphia. At 22 years and 10 days old, he was the youngest Giant to make his first career start since Madison Bumgarner in 2009 (20 years, 38 days).

Made his first career appearance at Oracle Park on August 28 vs. the Reds. He threw 6.1 innings and earned his first career win, becoming the youngest Giant to earn a win since Bumgarner (August 9, 2011 vs. PIT).

Struck out 14 of the first 30 batters he faced in his MLB career, the third-most by a starter through as many batters since 1901, trailing only WSH's Stephen Strasburg (17, 2010) and MIL's Freddy Peralta (15, 2018).

OFF THE FIELD

Graduated from De La Salle High School in nearby Concord.

Younger brother, Connor "Bear" Harrison, is a sophomore catcher at Texas A&M. Last year at nearby St. Mary's he slashed .322/.410/.541 as a freshman in 43 games. The 6-foot-3 youngster won the North Coast Section Player of the Year award at the Cal-Hi Sports' end-of-year banquet on May 21, 2023, at Levi's Stadium.

Mother, Kim Guinn, played field hockey at San José State University.

His maternal grandfather, Skip Guinn, pitched parts of three seasons with the Braves and Astros between 1968-71. Guinn appeared in 35 games in total over the three years and recorded one save.

Harrison has actually pitched in two parks that Guinn pitched in on his way to the Majors. Guinn pitched for the San Jose Bees in 1973, the same ballpark where Harrison pitched in 2021. In 2022, Harrison pitched in Double-A Richmond at The Diamond. The seating structure at The Diamond is built on top of Parker Field where Guinn pitched in 1967-68 with the Richmond Braves.

Attended a Giants game in 2018 and met his 2024 teammate LHP Blake Snell while Snell was pitching for the Tampa Bay Rays. Snell gave the young left-hander the succinct, but valuable advice to "throw strikes."

Really loves to cook when he has the time with his signature dish being a rosemary and garlic ribeye steak paired with asparagus and mashed potatoes. He learned to cook by watching the Food Network.

OFF THE FIELD

Has two sons, George, who was born in 2020, and Emmett, who was born in 2022.

Attended Mahtomedi High School in Mahtomedi, MN where he played baseball and basketball.

Last name is pronounced "Jelly". Sean is Norwegian-German on his father's side and Italian-Polish on his mother's side.

Hjelle majored in Secondary Education - Social Studies and graduated from Kentucky after he started his pro career. Hjelle earned his degree in 2020.

He is an avid reader of ancient civilizations and ancient religions. He has wanted to be a teacher since middle school and hopes to teach after his baseball career. He enjoyed studying history so much in college he took eight classes from the same history professor.

Hjelle's great-great grandmother's family moved from Germany to Russia at the behest of the monarchy which needed labor. In return the czar promised the men they would not be required to serve in the Russian army, which was mandatory.

He told the San Francisco Chronicle that his family went over there and were told they had to serve in the military, breaking the deal. So they instead came to America and got a farm in South Dakota before eventually settling in Minnesota.

Following the KBO season, Lee played for the South Korean national baseball team at the 2019 WBSC Premier12.

2020 SEASON

Won his third consecutive Golden Glove Award while batting .333 with 15 home runs, 101 RBI and a career-high .921 OPS.

Played for South Korea in the 2023 World Baseball Classic and hit .429 with two doubles and five RBI in the tournament.

OFF THE FIELD

Lee wore #51 his rookie season with the Giants, the same number he wore through his seven-year career with the Kiwoom Heroes. Lee chose the number after his favorite player, Hall-of-Famer Ichiro Suzuki, who was on the rise with the Orix Buffaloes in 1998 when Lee was born in Japan. Three years later, Ichiro would become the first position player to make the leap from Nippon Professional Baseball to the Majors.

During 2024 Spring Training, with the help of Giants manager Bob Melvin, Lee was able to meet his idol, Ichiro, prior to a Spring Training game vs. the Mariners. "They talked about preparation and what it means," Melvin told the SF Chronicle. "You could tell, for a guy that's played as much as [Lee] has and had as much success as he's had, it was an out-of-body moment for him. So it was really cool."

HEY BUDDY!

Is good friends with Rays infielder and former Kiwoom Heroes teammate Ha-Seong Kim. Kim played for Giants manager Bob Melvin in San Diego for two seasons from 2022-23."He was my spiritual leader in Korea. I was able to start dreaming big dreams thanks to his great advice. It's at once surreal and exciting to put aside our friendship and face each other" Lee made his MLB debut against Kim and the Padres on March 28, 2024.

HEY BUDDY PT. 2

Also is friends with Hyeseong Kim, who recently signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Lee and Kim were also teammates for Kiwoom during Lee's time in the KBO.

Lee is the son of Jong-beom Lee, a former KBO MVP whose nickname is "Son of the Wind." He earned the label after stealing a KBO-record 84 bases in 1994 en route to being the league's Most Valuable Player.

GRANDSON OF THE WIND

In his introductory press conference, Jung Hoo called himself "Grandson of the Wind", honoring his father's legacy. His father's 19-year playing career began in Korea for the Kia Tigers but eventually took him to the Chunichi Dragons in Nagoya, Japan, where Jung Hoo was born.

Jong-beom was the 1993 Korean Series MVP winner after batting .310 to help Kia to a championship.

Jong-beom Lee says he is a fan of San Francisco because his wife, Jeong-min Jeong, is. "She always wanted to come to San Francisco," Jong-beom said. "I love the history of the team. McCovey Cove, to me and Korean fans, that's a big deal – and the Coca-Cola bottle. This stadium's been in so many movies."

Lee has two dogs, a Pomeranian named Kao (right) and a Chihuahua named Lua (left). Kao has its own Instagram (@kkaorua).

FAMILY TIES

Lee's sister, Ga Hyun Lee, is married to Marlins reliever Woo-Suk Go. The two were wed in January of 2023. Go signed with San Diego on January 23, 2024, before being later traded to Miami in May, 2024, in the deal that brought Luis Arraez to San Diego. Go served as the closer for the 2023 KBO champion LG Twins before coming to play in the states. Lee and Go have been competing against one another on the field since Lee's third year of middle school. You can read the full article courtesy of MLB.com by clicking here.

CAREER NOTES |

2016 SEASON

Named a short-season All-Star by Baseball America and a Post-Season Northwest League All-Star with Single-A Tri-City in his first professional season.

2017 SEASON

Named the Padres Minor League Pitcher of the Year and California League Mid-Season All-Star after going 11-7 with a 2.20 ERA and 148 strikeouts in 24 outings.

2018 SEASON

Had his contract selected on March 30 and started that same day against Milwaukee. Lucchesi became the first pitcher of the 2016 draft class to make his MLB debut.

Led the Padres staff in strikeouts (145) and ranked second in starts (26) and innings pitched (130.0). His 145 strikeouts were third-most among all MLB rookies.

2019 SEASON

Ranked inside the top five among all qualifying NL lefties in opponent average (.233, third), OPS (.702, fourth) and WHIP (1.22, fifth). His .183 opposing batting average at home was fifth-best in MLB.

2021 SEASON

Was dealt to the Mets on January 19 as part of a three-team trade that sent RHP Joe Musgrove to the Padres and RHP David Bednar, LHP Omar Cruz, RHP Drake Fellows, OF Hudson Head and C Endy Rodríguez to the Pirates.

Appeared in just 11 games (nine starts) with the Mets before suffering a torn UCL in his left elbow during his start on June 18 at Washington. Underwent Tommy John surgery on June 24, performed by Dr. David Altchek.

In five outings prior to his injury, the southpaw posted a 1.19 ERA (3er, 22.2ip) with 24 strikeouts and six walks.

2022 SEASON

Made eight rehab appearances across three minor league affiliates while recovering from Tommy John surgery, posting a 2.13 ERA.

2023 SEASON

Returned to the Majors after nearly two years (672 days) on April 21 and threw 7.0 shutout innings at Oracle Park, approximately 35 miles from his hometown of Newark, CA.

Was a perfect 4-0 in nine starts in his return to the Majors. Went 3-0 with a 1.48 ERA (4er, 24.1ip) in four starts after the All-Star Break.

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended local Newark Memorial High School before spending two seasons at Chabot College in Hayward, CA, where he helped guide his team to a Golden Coast Division Championship in 2013. The junior college has produced a handful of Major League talent that includes Bip Roberts, Darren Lewis, Nate Schierholtz, Joe Rudi Dick Tidrow and Ned Yost.

Attended Southeast Missouri State, where he became the first pitcher in conference history to win back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year awards. As a senior, he was named a Second Team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. His 149 strikeouts his senior year set a new school and conference record and his 242 career strikeouts broke the Southeast Missouri record. Lucchesi was inducted into the Southeast Missouri Hall of Fame in 2021.

Trying to come up with a creative Twitter handle while at Southeast Missouri State, he asked his college teammates for a nickname. One of them suggested "Fuego," and years later, he still goes by the pseudonym.

Gained fame for a pitch he calls a "churve". He holds it deep in his palm like a classic circle changeup while tinkering with his wrist as he throw it, snapping off the pitch like a breaking ball. It soon became his go-to put-away weapon. Per Statcast, his churve had an average 8.9 inch vertical drop in 2019, which was the most movement of any pitcher's changeup by more than a full inch.

In 2021, the Mets celebrated reaching base by holding up the grip for the churve.

Gets a haircut the day before every start. Also calls his father, Kenneth, before each start and the two talk through the next start. Joey would have wanted to work with his father, an engineer, if he did not play professional baseball.

Works out at Cressey Sports Performance in Palm Beach Gardens, FL in the offseason, where new Giants teammate Justin Verlander also has trained.

Is a big Golden State Warriors fan. Grew up playing basketball and loves the sport. His favorite players were Baron Davis and Monta Ellis.

Joey and his girlfriend, Jenifer, welcomed their first child, a daughter named Adriana, on December 10, 2024.

Promoted to High-A Eugene for his final 14 games where he batted .269 with an .810 OPS.

Batted .286 with one homer for Eugene in the playoffs as they repeated as NWL Champions.

2023 SEASON

His 52 steals led the Northwest League, and the Giants organization.

Also led the NWL in runs (101) and hits (126). He ranked inside the NWL's top-10 in in batting average (9th, .255), RBI (6th, 66), on-base percentage (5th, .360), slugging percentage (9th, .417), OPS (5th, .777), walks (3rd, 72), triples (T-3rd, six) and doubles (4th, 26).

From July 1 through the end of the season, McCray slashed .280/.388/.449 (.837 OPS) with 16 doubles, six homers, 24 RBI and 22 stolen bases (57 games).

OFF THE FIELD

McCray graduated from Lakewood Ranch HS (FL) in 2019. Another prominent Major Leaguer to attend Lakewood Ranch was Lastings Milledge (2006-11).

McCray was committed to Florida State University before being taken by SF in the third round of the 2019 draft and later signing.

Grant's father, Rodney, was the victim of one of baseball's most famous bloopers, when he crashed through the outfield wall while chasing a fly ball at Portland's Civic Stadium on May 27, 1991. You can watch the video here.

ESPN ranked the play as the seventh-favorite sports blooper of all time in 2004. Rodney was honored in 2006 with a "bobblefence" at a Portland Beavers game.

Rodney ended up appearing in 67 career Major League games for the White Sox (1990-91) and Mets (1992). When he debuted with the White Sox in 1990 he appeared in 32 games exclusively as a pinch runner or defensive replacement. For his MLB career, Rodney only had 16 plate appearances despite playing in 67 games. The elder McCray appeared in 829 career minor league games, last playing in Indy ball in 1993.

After his playing career, Rodney was a roving outfield and base running instructor for the Montreal Expos, Kansas City Royals, Cincinnati Reds and Los Angeles Dodgers.

Has roomed with fellow Giants Trevor McDonald and Landen Roupp the past few seasons. Grant would do the majority of the cleaning around their apartment while the trio would take turns cooking for each other.

When Grant was younger he'd tag along with his father on his roving assignments, getting to meet Major Leaguers like Deion Sanders, Ken Griffey Jr. and others. He became closest with Dee Strange-Gordon and the two remain in touch.

Is one of four siblings. Grant has three sisters: L'Oreal, Sydney and Madison.

Grant's sister, Sydney McCray, is a junior outfielder for Grand Canyon University's softball team after transferring from Florida Southwestern State. At Florida Southwestern State, Sydney was a 2nd Team NJCAA All-American in 2023.

- Had a 3-7 record and 4.40 ERA (42er, 86.0ip) in 23 appearances (20 starts) across all levels.
- Added to the Major League roster on September 29 and made his MLB debut that afternoon vs. STL... threw 3.0 hitless, scoreless innings of relief with a walk and a strikeout.
- Became the second player in Giants history to make their MLB debut on the final day of the season, joining Justin Knoedler (October 3, 2004).

- Had a 3.43 ERA (8er, 21.0ip) with 14 strikeouts, a 0.90 WHIP and a .181 BAA over his final four Triple-A starts prior to his debut.
- Was the sixth member of the Giants' 2019 signed Draft class to debut in the Majors (also OF Grant McCray, IF/OF Tyler Fitzgerald, RHP Caleb Kilian, RHP Cole Waites and RHP Nick Avila).

CAREER NOTES

AT GEORGE COUNTY

Attended George County High School in Lucedale, MS. Was dominant during his senior year, finishing 8-2 with a 1.78 ERA in 12 games and striking out 105 batters in 51.0 innings.

Committed to play collegiately at South Alabama but decided to forgo college after the Giants drafted him in the 11th round.

2023 SEASON

Only appeared in 14 games after a pair of stints on the minor league injured list. He missed time at the beginning of the year with right shoulder inflammation and then dealt with a left hamstring strain that saw him miss nearly two months.

Made five rehab starts between the ACL Giants Orange and Black and worked 9.2 innings with a 2.79 ERA and 12 strikeouts.

Returned to Eugene on July 28 and did not allow an earned run in his first five starts (21.0ip), limiting opponents to a .159 clip.

Earned NWL Pitcher of the Week honors on August 20 after snagging his second win of the season with 5.0-scoreless innings.

Named August's NWL Pitcher of the Month as a result of his strong stretch with Eugene. He finished the month with a 0.35 ERA (1er, 26.0ip) through six starts, holding batters scoreless in four of six outings.

OFF THE FIELD

Was on his senior trip, a cruise to Puerto Rico, when he was drafted by the Giants. Said he was on a beach when he got the call.

Had his jersey number (18) retired and received the key to his hometown city of Lucedale, MS in December, 2024.

Told the Paradise Card Breaks show that he wants teammate Landen Roupp's autograph because Roupp has the best curveball McDonald has ever seen.

Loves to go "Frogging" which is when you go on river banks at night and hunt for frogs with your bare hands. He says frog legs taste like a more gamey chicken.

SPLASH BRO

- On September 15, 2024, Heliot Ramos became the first right-handed hitter in Oracle Park history to hit a Splash Hit after lining a 9th-inning, game-tying homer off San Diego's RHP Robert Suarez.
- The feat coincided with Major League Baseball's yearly Roberto Clemente Day and the Giants' celebration of life for Orlando Cepeda. Ramos, a fellow Puerto Rican, wore Clemente's No. 21 as he hit his 21st homer of the year for SF.
- The Splash Hit was the 105th by a Giants player and 168th overall since the ballpark opened in 2000.
- "I always knew that I had that oppo juice, but it looks impossible just by looking at the wall and the weather here," Ramos told reporters after the game. "I was like, 'I don't know, but I might be able to do it.' I was always positive that I was going to do it. "This is a big organization. It has a lot of great legends and all that. For me to be the first one to do it, it's insane to me."

CAREER NOTES

AT GARDEN CITY CC / AUSTIN PEAY

Tyler attended Garden City Community College (KS) for his freshman and sophomore seasons before transferring to Austin Peay for his final two seasons.

Tyler is a submariner, with his knuckles barely staying off the ground as he delivers the ball to the plate. It was at Garden City Community College where he became a submarine pitcher. His coach at the time, Chris Finnegan, suggested Tyler try a submarine style motion.

2019 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on August 27 vs. Arizona after spending seven seasons in the Giants' minor league system.

2020 SEASON

Led the National League with 29 appearances in the shortened season.

2021 SEASON

Logged a career-best seven wins after posting a 2.22 ERA in 80 outings. Rogers' 80 appearances were most in the NL.

2022 SEASON

Posted a career best 0.36 HR/9ip after allowing just three home runs in 75.2 innings.

Opposing batters' average exit velocity off Rogers was 84.2 mph, second-lowest in MLB (NYY's Jonathan Loáisiga, 83.9mph).

2023 SEASON

Appeared in 68 games for SF and recorded a career-best 60 strikeouts. Rogers held teams scoreless in 47 of his 68 outings.

Had a 27.0-inning scoreless streak from September 6, 2022 to April 23, 2023. The streak was the second-longest active in the Majors at the time.

His 84.4 mph average exit velocity was second-best in MLB.

OFF THE FIELD

Tyler and his wife, Jennifer, were married on November 14, 2020. Tyler Beede, a Giants teammate at the time, served as the officiant for the wedding.

Rogers graduated from Chatfield High School in Littleton, CO.

The couple welcomed their first son, Jack Ryan Rogers, in April 2022 and their second son, Nolan Ryan Rogers, in January 2025. Ryan is Jennifer's maiden name and there was no intention to name him after the Hall of Famer. Nolan Ryan, however, called Tyler to congratulate him. Read about it here.

Was inducted into Austin Peay's Athletics Hall of Fame in February 2024. Rogers was a key member of the Governors 2012 and 2013 OVC championship teams.

TWINNING

- Tyler was teammates with his twin brother, Taylor, with the Giants for the 2023 and 2024 seasons. Taylor was traded to Cincinnati on January 29, 2025.
- According to Elias, the Rogers brothers were the fourth set of twins to play on the same team in Major League history. The last set of twins to do so prior to the Rogers' brothers were Jose and Ozzie Canseco, who both played for Oakland in 1990. The other two sets of twin teammates were: Eddie and Johnny O'Brien for the Pirates in 1953 and 1955-58 and Joe and Red Shannon for Boston in 1915.
- Prior to becoming teammates, the two both made appearances in the same game on April 11, 2022 with Taylor pitching for San Diego. It was the second time in MLB history that two twin brothers pitched in the same game and the first time for opposing teams.
- The only other time it happened prior to the 2022 occurrence was July 31, 1956 when Johnny & Eddie O'Brien, primarily position players for their careers, both pitched for Pittsburgh.
- Both Tyler and Taylor said they would have become firefighters had they not succeeded in baseball. Their father, Scott, was a career firefighter in Lakewood, CO who recently retired. Their great grandfather also served as did their great-great-grandfather, who emigrated from Ireland and traveled to Denver in a covered wagon.
- During their baseball careers, Tyler and Taylor started the Rogers Family Foundation, dedicated to the mental wellness of first responders.

CAREER NOTES

AT SOUTH FLORIDA

Hit a home run in his first collegiate at-bat. Made the 2018 All-American Athletic Conference First Team as a junior after setting a conference record with 24 doubles and finishing second with a .374 average.

2021 SEASON

Slugged 20 homers in 106 games for Double-A Richmond, setting the club record for homers in a single season in a notoriously difficult hitter's league.

2022 SEASON

Enjoyed a breakout campaign between Triple-A Sacramento and San Francisco.

Was named PCL's Most Valuable Player after posting a league-leading 1.021 OPS in 84 games for Sacramento. Overall with the River Cats, Villar hit .275 with 19 doubles, one triple, 27 homers and 82 RBI.

36

Combined to hit 36 homers between Triple-A and San Francisco. Villar's 36 home runs were the most by anyone throughout the Giants organization since Barry Bonds hit 45 homers in 2004.

2023 SEASON

Made the Opening Day roster for SF but appeared in only 46 games for the Giants.

Spent majority of the season at Triple-A and hit .272 with 54 runs, 14 doubles, 17 home runs, 51 RBI and an .869 OPS in 75 games.

OFF THE FIELD

Got engaged to his long-time girlfriend Allison Chilton in December 2023.

Attended American Heritage School in Plantation, FL.

Villar was 3 years old when he played in his first T-ball league.

DID YOU KNOW?

At the University of South Florida, Villar received a criminology degree after finishing the last remaining credits during the pandemic. He intends to go to law school one day, either to enter sports law or to become a prosecutor.

Credits Rays pitcher Shane McClanahan with helping him get drafted. McClanahan had many scouts at his starts during his time at USF so Villar would use that to his advantage to try and show out that day.

CAREER NOTES |

AT MARYLAND

Attended the University of Maryland where he hit .335 with a .453 OBP as a junior in 2015. In the NCAA Tournament that year, he was named the Louisiana Regional's Most Outstanding Player.

2020-2021 OFFSEASON

Wade drove an hour each way from his home to the University of Maryland four days a week. Back at school, Wade worked on his hitting under Maryland assistant coach Matt Swope. Those sessions helped lay the foundation for his breakout season in 2021.

2021 SEASON

Had a breakout campaign in his first season with the Giants in 2021. Set career bests in virtually every offensive category: hits (85), runs (52), 2B (17), 3B (3), HR (18), RBI (56) and walks (33).

Earned the nickname "Late Night LaMonte" after his late-game heroics. Wade had six game-tying or go-ahead hits in the 9th inning in 2021, the most by any MLB player in a season in the last 40 years (Stats, LLC).

Won the 2021 Willie Mac Award, an annual honor bestowed upon the most inspirational player on the team, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff, clubhouse staff and the fans. The award was established in 1980 in honor of legend and Hall of Famer Willie McCovey.

2022 SEASON

Was bothered by a troublesome left knee most of the season that actually dated back to the end of his 2021 campaign. Appeared in only 77 games for SF, hitting .207 with eight homers.

2023 SEASON

Played in a career-high 135 games, 116 at first base, after making his second career Opening Day roster. Also set career-bests in batting average (.256), runs (64), walks (76) and on-base percentage (.373).

His 14.6% walk rate was seventh-best in MLB (fifth-best in the NL). Wade also had a .369 OBP as a leadoff hitter, which ranked sixth in MLB (min. 400 PA as leadoff hitter).

Was one of two Giants position players to stay on the active roster all year. The other was C/OF Blake Sabol.

Clubbed the 100th Splash Hit by a Giant in Oracle Park history on June 2, 2023 vs. Baltimore.

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended St. Paul's High School in Brooklandville, MD where he was a four-year letterwinner in baseball and basketball.

Has acted the club's union rep since the 2024 season. Was nominated by teammate Taylor Rogers, who was the union rep in Minnesota when Wade began his career. Read more about it here in the Mercury News.

As told to the San Francisco Chronicle, Wade penned a book for a middle school project titled "My Love for Baseball" which he dedicated to his parents. In it, he said he became transfixed with the game as a toddler by watching his mom play competitive slow-pitch softball where she was a slugging left fielder.

Wade is an avid ping pong player and practices against a robot to improve his skills. His mother, Emily, is also an avid ping pong player and plays competitively in tournaments.

MAKIN' A SPLASH

Wade clubbed his first career Splash Hit on July 31, 2021 vs. Houston. His mom, Emily, was in attendance that day and was standing on the portwalk in RF and watched the homer sail over her head. She later got the ball back.

Two years later, it was Wade who connected on the 100th Giants Splash Hit in Oracle Park history. Wade took Baltimore's Dean Kremer deep to lead off the game on June 2, 2023 for the milestone homer.

Entering 2025, Wade has six career Splash Hits, tied for fourth-most in Oracle Park history.

CAREER NOTES |

AT WEST ALABAMA

Was a Physical Education major at the University of West Alabama. Worked primarily as a starter and led the Gulf South Conference as a junior with 118 strikeouts.

2020 SEASON

Spent the canceled minor-league season in 2020 at Full Count Baseball, a facility in his home state of Georgia. He returned from the pandemic with a fastball that sat in the upper-90s and reached 100 mph.

2021 SEASON

Was non-tendered on November 17 but re-signed with SF on a minor league deal.

Cole and his wife, Kortnie, were married this past offseason. The two make their offseason home in Georgia.

Attended Archer (GA) High School where he had a 1.85 ERA as a junior.

CAREER NOTES

AT WASHINGTON STATE

Attended Washington State and thrived during his first two seasons on campus, posting ERAs of 2.72 and 2.40 his first two seasons.

Regressed his junior year after being moved into the starting rotation where he posted a 5.67 ERA. Walker saw his velocity dip as a starter so they moved him back to the bullpen for his final 12 outings.

As a senior, Walker led the team in appearances (23) all out of the bullpen and had a 3.98 ERA.

Finished his Cougars career with 87 appearances, second-most in school history. His 13 relief wins are tied for first in school history.

2018 SEASON

Pitched at three levels after being drafted by SF in the 31st round earlier in the year. Walker reached High-A San Jose.

2021 SEASON

Returned to the High-A level, this time with SF's new affiliate in Eugene. Made 40 appearances there before a late season promotion to Double-A Richmond. Spent the last month of the year at Double-A.

2022 SEASON

Started back at Double-A and made 43 appearances before his first promotion to Triple-A, four years after he'd been drafted.

2023 SEASON

Began the year at Triple-A and appeared in 15 games with the River Cats before having his contract selected on May 19. His 0.89 ERA (2er, 20.1ip) with Sacramento prior to his promotion was tops in the Giants organization (min. 20.0ip). He also had a 31.1% strikeout rate.

Made his MLB debut on May 21 vs. Miami and earned the win as he tossed 1.0-scoreless inning.

His 26.4% opposing hard hit rate was fifth-best in the Majors.

Walker's 11.45 K/9ip ratio was the best by a Giants rookie pitcher since 1958 (min. 30.0ip in his rookie season).

Opened 13 games for SF and had a 2.21 ERA (5er, 20.1ip) with 32 strikeouts.

OFF THE FIELD

Met his now wife, Alexis, while at Washington State. Alexis was a psychology major born and raised in San Francisco. At WSU, she was a star volleyball player who left WSU first in career digs (2,152), second in digs per set (4.26) and 10th in service ace (39). They were married on September 25, 2021.

Ryan and Alexis welcomed their first child in August 2023, a girl named Rylie. The couple makes their offseason home in Arizona.

When Ryan is in San Francisco during the season he stays with Alexis' parents.

During the 2020 shutdown, Walker wasn't sure if the Giants would cut him loose. He got a job as a locksmith working 10 hours a day "because I had nothing else to do and wanted to make as much money as I could". It also turned out he really liked locksmithing.

He also was able to focus on what he needed to do in baseball. He found a former Giants trainer to train him for free. He got up at 5 a.m. to drive to the gym 45 minutes away. After the workouts he'd go to his locksmith gig. He ended up gaining an extra 5 mph of velocity that offseason.

When he was in college his team took a 10-day trip to the Dominican Republic where they played against the police and navy baseball teams in Santo Domingo as well as some of the complex league teams out there.

- Finished at least 7.0 innings on 15 different occasions, most of any pitcher in the Majors...Webb became the first Giants pitcher to record as many such games in consecutive seasons since Madison Bumgarner did it in 2015 (19) and 2016 (15)...the last MLB pitcher with 15+ games of at least 7.0 innings pitched in two straight seasons was Jacob deGrom, who did so in 2018 (21) and 2019 (19).
- Didn't allow a home run in a career-best 45.1 consecutive innings between July 20 and August 27...overall, he gave up just 11 homers, tied for second-fewest among qualified pitchers behind ATL's Chris Sale (nine)...Webb's 0.48 HR/9ip was a career-best and ranked as the second-best figure in the Majors, trailing only Sale (0.46).
- Was 7-5 with a 2.83 ERA (32er, 101.2ip) in 15 starts at Oracle Park in 2024...the Giants went 9-6 in Webb's 15 home starts.
- Led the Majors with 353 produced ground balls and owned a 57.2% ground ball rate, fourth-best in the Majors behind HOU's Framber Valdez (61.7%), ATL's Max Fried (59.2%) and PHI's Cristopher Sánchez (58.3%).
- Threw his second career shutout on July 31 in SF's 1-0 victory over the A's...limited Oakland batters to just five hits with a walk and six strikeouts, achieving the feat in just one hour & 55 minutes (106 pitches).
- Induced 25 double plays, most in the NL and second-most in MLB behind HOU's Framber Valdez (32).

2016 SEASON

Underwent Tommy John surgery in June of 2016 and returned a season later in 2017.

2019 SEASON

Began with an 80-game suspension for PEDs while playing for Double-A Richmond.

When he returned, he made stops at every level from Arizona rookie to Single A, Double A, a single start in Triple A, then his Major League debut on August 17 in Phoenix.

2020 SEASON

Won his home start on September 8, 2020, beginning a stretch where the Giants would go on to win 18 consecutive regular season Webb starts at Oracle Park through May 24, 2022. The 18-game run matched Atlee Hammaker's stretch (18, 1982-83) for the longest by any Giant in the modern era.

2021 SEASON

Enjoyed his breakout campaign where he went 11-3 with a 3.03 ERA in 27 games (26 starts).

The Giants went 22-5 in Webb's 27 games (26 starts) during the regular season. Over his final 20 starts, SF was 18-2 while Webb himself went 10-0 with a 2.40 ERA.

2021 POSTSEASON

Was dominant in his first Postseason, going 1-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1er, 14.2ip) and 17 strikeouts in two NLDS starts against LA.

Fired 7.2 scoreless innings with no walks and 10 strikeouts in his playoff debut on October 8 vs. the Dodgers. In doing so. He became the fourth Giants pitcher all-time to strike out at least 10 batters in his Postseason debut. Overall, Webb was the 11th Giants pitcher to strike out 10 or more batters in a Postseason game.

2022 SEASON

Won 15 games while boasting a 2.90 ERA. Became the eighth Giants right-hander 25 or younger to win 15+ games since 1958.

Led the National League with a 57.8 groundball percentage. Only Houston's Framber Valdez (67.4%) was better among qualified pitchers.

Had the fourth-lowest home run % in the Majors (second-lowest in the NL). Only José Quintana (1.2%), Framber Valdez (1.3%) and Martín Pérez (1.3%) had a lower mark that Webb.

2023 SEASON

Signed a five-year extension worth $90 million in April to keep him a Giant through the 2028 season.

Finished second in the NL Cy Young voting after setting career bests in starts (33), innings pitched (216.0), strikeouts (194) and fewest walks in a full season (31).

Led the Majors in innings, surpassing the 200-inning threshold for the first time in his career. Became the first Giant to lead the Majors in innings pitched since Gaylord Perry in 1970.

Outside of leading MLB in innings, and being tied for the lead in quality starts, he ranked among the Majors' best in ERA (3.25, 10th), complete games (two, T-3rd), games started (33, T-3rd) and WHIP (1.07, 6th).

Was worth 4.9 fWAR, tied for fourth-best in the National League among starters. His 2.95 xFIP was second while his 3.16 FIP was fourth-best.

His changeup was the second-most valuable pitch in the Majors in terms of run value at +28 (Statcast). Only the Yankees' Gerrit Cole had a more valuable pitch (+29 with his four-seam fastball).

OFF THE FIELD

Married his high school sweetheart Sharidan Morales on December 5, 2021 in Sacramento, CA. The two welcomed their first child, a daughter Mila, in October 2024.

Grew up going to both A's and Giants games but mostly A's because his father was a fan. Logan's favorite A's were Tim Hudson, Bobby Crosby and Stephen Vogt (who would catch him in his Major League debut with the Giants).

Roots for the Sacramento Kings and Las Vegas Raiders.

Threw for 3,767 yards with 47 touchdowns and 18 interceptions in his football career at Rocklin (CA) High School. Was the starting quarterback his junior and senior seasons.

He is considered legally blind because of astigmatism, which causes blurred vision. Diagnosed in 3rd or 4th grade when he was having a hard time seeing the ball. Wore glasses until age 11 or 12, which made football difficult, then switched to contacts. He still usually wears glasses when he's not playing ball but only at night.

His dad Erik played one season on the Serra High baseball team in San Mateo with Barry Bonds.

Webb's favorite snack food are Cheez It crackers.

He drinks three Red Bulls before every start. One right before he gets to the field, one before he starts stretching with the trainer, and then one as he finishes his warm-up pitches in the bullpen.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2022, Webb began talking to high school children in his native Sacramento area for an awareness campaign about the dangers of fentanyl following the unexpected and sudden passing of Logan's cousin, Kade, who died days before Webb's wedding in 2021 after taking a counterfeit pain pill laced with fentanyl.

"That whole night was a blur," Webb told The Athletic's Andrew Baggarly in 2022. "It was things you never want to see, body bags, stuff like that. You feel like it's not real. We were there in the parking lot of that Safeway from midnight until 3 or 4 a.m. I had to try to go through that weekend like everything was normal. And it wasn't normal."

Pitched in four games for Chatham in the Cape Cod League before the 2022 draft.

Missed the final two months of the season with a left elbow sprain.

Attended the Davie County HS in Mocksville, NC, the same school as Major Leaguer Whit Merrifield. Whisenhunt was the sixth player ever to be drafted after attending Davie. Two of the previous five have reached the Majors (Merrifield and RHP Jeremy Walker, who pitched with Atlanta in 2019 and actually in the Giants minors system in 2022).

ON HOLLIDAY

During Whisenhunt's time in the Cape Cod League prior to the 2022 draft he played for the Chatham Anglers, who were managed by Tom Holliday. Holliday is the father of former Major Leaguer Matt Holliday and grandfather to current Orioles infielder Jackson Holliday.

CAREER NOTES

AT IOWA WESTERN CC

Played for Iowa Western Community College and wrapped up his two seasons with a 7-1 record and a 2.37 ERA in 24 appearances (four starts).

Was actually drafted twice by the Giants, being taken by SF in the 20th round of the 2017 draft (606th pick) but he opted to return to school. SF took him again in the fifth round in 2018 and he signed.

2021 SEASON

After not playing in 2020 due to there being no minor league season, Winn missed the entire '21 season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

2022 SEASON

Returned from Tommy John surgery and began the year at Single-A San Jose before ending it at Double-A Richmond. Worked 108.0 innings total across the three levels (San Jose, Eugene and Richmond).

Was added to the Giants 40-man roster following the season.

2023 SEASON

Recalled from Triple-A Sacramento on June 12 and made his Major League debut on June 13 at STL in relief, firing 4.0 innings and picking up the save.

Became the third Major Leaguer since saves became an official stat in 1969 to pitch at least 4.0 innings and earn the save in his MLB debut. The other two are STL's Zack Thompson on June 3, 2022 and BOS' Bob Stanley on April 16, 1977 (Elias).

Grew up in Ollie, IA, about a four-hour drive from in St. Louis. Winn had a bunch of family and friends from his hometown at his debut.

OFF THE FIELD

Keaton and his wife, Kailey, were married on November 5, 2022. Kailey graduated from Iowa State University and works in marketing for 7G Distributing LLC, a Budweiser distributor in Cedar Rapids. The couple met at a New Year's Eve party in Iowa when Kailey let a drink slip from her hand and spill onto Keaton's white shirt. Immediately smitten, Keaton found Kailey through social media and messaged her the next day. They married four years later.

Winn attended Perkin Community High School in Packwood, IA where he was all-district in football, baseball and basketball. Was also a 4x200 track state champion.

As a member of the Panthers basketball team, Winn logged a record-breaking 26 rebounds in one game.

Returned to Perkin during the 2023-2024 offseason to have his baseball jersey number (#23) retired. Winn still holds the school career record for ERA as well as the distinction of having the only perfect game in school history.

Grew up in Ollie, IA, a small town of just 201 residents in 58 households according to the 2020 census. "Ollie is small even by small-town Iowa standards" Winn told Andrew Baggarly of The Athletic. "The nearest stoplight is miles away and most of the five or six stop signs do not yield to oncoming traffic. Main Street is more ambition than place name. There's a post office and a Baptist church and a car detailing business and five cemeteries. Other than that, visit in late July and you'll be surrounded by corn. Unless it's the opposite year. That's when they put in soybeans."

Winn has two sisters and a brother. The family has a small baseball field in their backyard, where Keaton played with his buddies.

His No. 1 hobby is fishing. The moment baseball season ends, he grabs his fishing pole.

His father, Chris, was born and raised in Ollie and works in agricultural drainage engineering, taking over the business from his father. His mother, Lynn, is a registered nurse who, on the campus of University of Iowa, works at a rehab center for trauma patients (strokes, traumatic brain injuries, accidents).

YAZ

SAN FRANCISCO
'24 IN REVIEW
NOTHING LIKE IT

2024 AT 24: The Giants finished the regular season 80-82 to miss the playoffs for a third consecutive season...SF finished in fourth place in the National League West, 18.0 games out of first place and 9.0 games out of the third and final Wild Card spot.

OUTSIDE LOOKING IN, AGAIN: 2024 marked the seventh time in the last eight years (since 2017) in which the Giants have missed the Postseason.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD: The Giants announced on September 30 that they parted ways with President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi, a role he'd held since November 6, 2018, and elevated 2012 NL MVP and three-time World Series Champion Buster Posey to the President of Baseball Operations role.

- SF went 453-417 (.521) with one Postseason berth (2021) in six seasons under Zaidi.

CAN'T GET OVER THE HUMP: The Giants struggled to get over the .500 hump, playing just 29 games at or above .500 (15 above .500).

- The Giants went 8-14 (.364) in games in which a win would get them to .500, getting outscored 99-93.

NICE TO MEET YOU: The Giants used 58 total players in 2024, eighth-most in MLB and fifth-most in the NL (Miami led MLB with 70 players).

- The 58 players were third-most in Giants franchise history, trailing only the 2019 and 2022 teams, who had 64 and 66 players, respectively.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: Rookies again played a major part for the Giants, with 13 players making MLB debuts, surpassing their total (12) from 2023.

- The 13 MLB debuts were tied for most in MLB with the A's and White Sox.
- The 13 players who debuted were: OF Jung Hoo Lee (March 28), LHP Erik Miller (March 28), RHP Landen Roupp (March 29), RHP Kai-Wei Teng (March 31), RHP Nick Avila (April 1), RHP Randy Rodríguez (May 4), RHP Mason Black (May 6), IF Trenton Brooks (May 28), RHP Spencer Bivens (June 16), LHP Raymond Burgos (June 24), RHP Hayden Birdsong (June 26), OF Grant McCray (August 14) and RHP Trevor McDonald (September 29).

HOMESICK: The Giants were 42-39 at home compared to 38-43 on the road...the last few weeks of the season saw a reversal, however, as SF ended the year winning 9 of its final 12 road games while going 3-10 at home in September.

INJURIES: The injury bug bit the Giants hard with 1,445 total games missed by players on the Injured List, Bereavement List or Paternity List.

- In Spring Training, SF was already without RHP Alex Cobb (left hip surgery) and LHP Robbie Ray (left elbow UCL surgery) before RHP Tristan Beck needed surgery to remove an aneurysm in his right arm.
- LHP Blake Snell was placed on the Injured List twice and the Paternity List once, missing 59 total games.
- RHP Keaton Winn, missed the final 86 games of the season with right elbow inflammation while top prospect LHP Kyle Harrison missed 43 games with two separate injuries.
- The Giants lost rookie OF Jung Hoo Lee for the final 4+ months of the season with a dislocated left shoulder, as well as SF's 2023 home run leader IF Wilmer Flores (right knee tendonitis) for the final 60 games.

PACKING THE PARK: The Giants averaged 33,097 fans at home, 10th-best in MLB...the attendance bump for SF was an increase of 2,231 fans/game over 2023.

- The 2,647,736 fans at Oracle were the franchise's most since the pre-pandemic 2019 season (2,707,760).
- The Giants had 13 sellouts after totaling three in 2023.
- The season-high attendance was September 1 in which 41,187 fans were on hand.

HONORING OUR LEGENDS: The Giants celebrated the life of Hall-of-Famer Willie Mays, as well as the history of the Negro Leagues, when they played the St. Louis Cardinals at Rickwood Field on June 20 in Birmingham, AL.

- Mays passed away two days prior while the Giants were playing in Chicago at Wrigley Field.
- The Giants also celebrated the life of Hall-of-Famer Orlando Cepeda, who passed away on June 28, with a pregame ceremony at Oracle Park on Fiesta Gigantes Day on September 15 vs. San Diego.

ALL-STAR(AMOS): OF Heliot Ramos capped off his All-Star campaign by doing something no one had ever done before, becoming the first right-handed hitter to hit a "splash hit" homer at Oracle Park when he did so on September 15 vs. San Diego.

- He became the first homegrown Giants outfielder to make an All-Star team since OF Chili Davis in 1986, slashing .298/.365/.523 with 29 runs, 11 doubles, 14 homers, 46 RBI and an .888 OPS in 60 first-half games.
- Entering the season at age 24, Ramos was the youngest Giant with 20+ homers in a season since IF Pablo Sandoval had 23 in 2011...was also the youngest SF outfielder with 22+ homers since OF Jack Clark had 22 HR in 1980 (also at 24 years old).
- After being recalled on May 8, he ranked among the NL leaders vs. lefties in hits (40, T-6th), extra-base hits (20, T-2nd), homers (10, T-2nd), RBI (24, T-10th) and OPS (1.189, 1st).

GIVING THEM FITZ: Rookie IF/OF Tyler Fitzgerald had a breakout second half of the season.

- Fitzgerald slashed .293/.350/.537 with 44 runs, 17 doubles, 14 home runs, 29 RBI and an .887 OPS as a shortstop...the other four players to appear at shortstop for SF (IF Marco Luciano, IF/OF Brett Wisely, IF Casey Schmitt and IF Nick Ahmed) combined to slash .252/.293/.368 with 10 runs, 16 doubles, five homers, 34 RBI and a .660 OPS.

- He hit his 15th career home run on August 13, joining OF Willie Mays as the only two in Giants franchise history with 15 or more home runs in their first 59 career games (with a plate appearance), (Mays had 16 homers in 59 games in 1951).
- Fitzgerald was named the National League Rookie of the Month in July...he led MLB rookies with eight homers and a 1.239 OPS, tied for the lead with 11 extra-base hits, was third with a .321 batting average and was fourth with 15 RBI.
- He became the first Giants rookie with 17 steals since OF Rajai Davis had 17 in 2007.

BEHIND THE DISH: C Patrick Bailey was one of the most valuable catchers in MLB and ended up winning his first career Gold Glove award...his 4.4 fWAR was third-best among catchers behind MIL's William Contreras (5.4) and SEA's Cal Raleigh (5.4).

- His 1.85 catcher pop time to second base was tied for best in the Majors, while his 16 catcher framing runs and 52.5% strike rate were best in MLB...Bailey's 20 DRS were the most among MLB catchers and tied for second-most at any position.

MATOS MANIA: OF Luis Matos provided a boost to the offense after two of SF's starting outfielders, OF Jung Hoo Lee (left shoulder dislocation) and OF Michael Conforto (right hamstring strain) went down with injuries on May 12 and 13.

- Matos had 17 RBI in his first six games of the year with a PA, the most by a Giant in his first six games of a season in club history.
- The hot week earned him NL Player of the Week after going 10-for-26 (.385) with two homers, 16 RBI, three doubles, three runs scored and a .731 slugging percentage in six games.
- Following the award, however, Matos slashed .183/.214/.275 with 10 runs, two doubles, three homers, eight RBI and a .489 OPS over 37 games at the MLB level the rest of the year.

INDIVIDUAL PITCHER NOTES

WEBB GEMS: One year after finishing second in the NL Cy Young voting, RHP Logan Webb earned his first career All-Star nod...he became the first homegrown (drafted and developed) Giants pitcher to be named to an All-Star Game since LHP Madison Bumgarner was selected to the team in 2016.

- Webb's 204.2 innings in 2024 ranked third-best in MLB (tops in the NL) behind SEA's Logan Gilbert (208.2) and KC's Seth Lugo (206.2ip)...Webb also ranked among the NL leaders in ERA (3.47, 10th), quality starts (20, T-2nd), fWAR (4.4, 5th) and FIP (2.96, 2nd).
- He tied his career-high with 33 starts and also reached the 200.0 inning plateau for the second-straight season...Webb is the first Giant with consecutive 200.0 inning seasons since RHP Jeff Samardzija did so in 2016 and 2017.
- Since the start of the 2022 season, Webb has thrown the most innings in the Majors (613.0).
- Webb tossed his second career shutout on July 31 vs. Oakland (1-0 win)...he joined RHP Greg Maddux as the only pitchers in MLB history to toss multiple 9+ inning 1-0 shutouts in under two hours in the Wild Card era (since 1995) according to Stats, LLC.

SNELLZILLA: After signing late in Spring, and an injury-plagued/ineffective first three months of the season, LHP Blake Snell reestablished himself as one of the best pitchers in MLB in July.

- Beginning July 1, Snell finished atop the MLB leaderboard with a 1.23 ERA, 0.78 WHIP, .123 opposing batting average, .382 opposing OPS, 1.78 FIP and .203 BABIP...he also finished third in the Majors over that span with 114 strikeouts.
- Snell threw the 18th no-hitter in Giants franchise history on August 2 at Cincinnati...it was the first SF no-hitter since RHP Chris Heston tossed one on June 9, 2015 at the Mets.
- The southpaw rarely gave up hard contact, with his opposing hard-hit rate of 28.9% ranking as the best in the Majors (min. 200 batted ball events).
- His 1.23 ERA over his last 14 games of the season (since July 9 vs. Toronto) was the lowest ERA by a Giant in a 14-game span since RHP Bobby Bolin had a 1.21 ERA from June 16-August 19, 1968 (min. 80.0ip).

A NEW SHERIFF IN TOWN: RHP Ryan Walker moved his way into the closer role with a dominant season...he converted all 10 save opportunities he was given after taking over the role.

- Walker was a workhorse for the Giants bullpen, with his 76 games ranking fifth-most in MLB and second-most in the NL behind teammate RHP Tyler Rogers (77 games).
- In the second half of the season, Walker had a 1.21 ERA (4er, 29.2ip) in 28 games, which was the seventh-best ERA in MLB over that span (min. 29.0ip)...he allowed just two earned runs over his last 22 games (24.1 innings) dating to July 30.
- The righty struck out 99 in 80.0 innings...his 97 strikeouts as a reliever (had two as an opener on April 24) were the most by a Giants reliever in a single season since RHP Robb Nen struck out 110 in 1998.

JUST DO IT: RHP Tyler Rogers finished the season with 77 games pitched, most in the National League and fourth-most in the Major Leagues...his 339 games pitched since he debuted on August 27, 2019 are most in MLB over that span.

- His 1.03 ERA at home was the best by a Giants pitcher since RHP Félix Rodríguez had a 0.91 ERA in 2001 (min. 35.0 innings pitched at home)...Rogers did not allow a run at home in 21.1 innings (23 games) from May 17-September 5.
- He walked six batters (two were intentional) in 70.1 innings...his 2.1% walk rate was the lowest in MLB (min. 200 BF).

DOVAL OFFICE: RHP Camilo Doval was optioned to Triple-A on August 9 after a tough eight-game stretch from July 14-August 8...he recorded two blown saves in seven opportunities with an 8.59 ERA (7er, 7.1ip), 1.91 WHIP and six walks in that span.

- Doval's strikeout rate went from 31.0% in 2023 to 28.8% in 2024, while his 9.3% walk rate last season jumped to 14.4%.
- The difference this season was the damage vs. Doval's cutter, which he threw 34.8% of his pitches, and his sinker, which saw its usage rate fall from 30.0% last year to 14.2% this year...his cutter's opposing average jumped from .175 to .284 this year with 10 doubles and two homers coming on the pitch in 2024 (three doubles and zero homers in 2023).

30th Major League Baseball All-Star Game

Tuesday, July 11, 1961 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In just its second year of existence, Candlestick Park–the Majors' first all-concrete stadium–played host to the first of two Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in 1961. Long before the days of the Home Run Derby and All-Star Gala, the game itself provided plenty of excitement, with a quartet of Hall of Famers leading the National League to a come-from-behind, 5-4, victory in 10 innings. Trailing the American League, 4-3, entering the bottom of the 10th, the senior circuit received a single from Hank Aaron, a run-scoring double by Willie Mays, a walk by Orlando Cepeda and the game-winning single from Roberto Clemente – all off fellow Cooperstown resident Hoyt Wilhelm.

However, those last at-bat heroics were almost not needed, as they became necessitated by one of the more bizarre and memorable moments in All-Star Game history. With the National Leaguers clinging to a 3-2, ninth-inning lead and a runner on third, a gust of wind knocked Giants' pitcher Stu Miller from his set position on the mound, resulting in a balk that allowed the tying run to score.

A capacity crowd of 44,115 filled the 'Stick for a contest that featured four San Francisco Giants (Mays, Cepeda, Miller and Mike McCormick) and a combined 18 players who would later be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

After a 23-year absence, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game returned to the Bay Area with the 1984 Midsummer Classic at Candlestick Park. Proving well worth the wait, 57,756 fans were treated to fifteen future Hall of Famers.

Pitching dominated this contest, with the National League batterymates for the fourth and fifth innings stealing the headlines in a 3-1 senior circuit victory. On the 50th anniversary of the Giants' Carl Hubbell striking out five consecutive batters, the duo of Fernando Valenzuela and Dwight Gooden did "King Carl" one better. Valenzuela fanned all three American League hitters he faced in the fourth inning; then, the youngest player in All-Star Game history–a 19-year-old Gooden–whiffed all three batters in the fifth. Gary Carter, who caught both frames, also broke a 1-1 tie with a solo homer in the second en route to MVP honors.

Oakland's Bill Caudill, making his only All-Star appearance, also posted a perfect inning via strikeout, doing so in his lone frame (seventh). Fittingly, in a game that featured a combined 21 strikeouts, the tight contest ended when Goose Gossage fanned Henderson with a runner on base in the ninth.

Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at AT&T Park
(San Francisco, CA)

The first All-Star Game at AT&T Park lived up to its billing, with the best of baseball turning in a thrilling contest in front of 43,965 fans. Most importantly, the game was San Francisco in all of its essence – beginning with an emotional pregame tribute to Hall of Famer Willie Mays, the greatest Giant of them all.

True to Mays' greatness, the Midsummer Classic featured a little bit of everything – including the first inside-the-park home run in All-Star Game history, hit by Ichiro Suzuki en route to Most Valuable Player honors. In the end, the American League captured a 5-4 victory after withstanding the National League's furious two-out, ninth-inning rally.

Flexing its muscle and speed, the junior circuit jumped out to a 5-2 lead on the strength of three home runs. The most memorable – and uniquely San Francisco – was Ichiro's two-run shot in the fifth that put the AL ahead 2-1. With a runner on first and one out, the Seattle star drove the first pitch he saw deep to right field – where it hit off the asymmetrical wall and caromed towards the 421-foot sign in right-center. By the time right fielder Ken Griffey, Jr. could relay the ball to the infield, Ichiro had scampered around the bases and set All-Star Game history.

Following Carl Crawford's solo home run in the sixth and Victor Martinez' two-run clout in the eighth, the AL gave a three-run lead to closer J.J. Putz in the ninth. After the first two National League hitters were retired, Dmitri Young singled and Alfonso Soriano hammered a two-run homer of his own to bring the senior circuit within 5-4. Three walks followed to load the bases – including two off new pitcher Francisco Rodriguez – but Rodriguez got Aaron Rowand to fly out and end the game.

Retired Uniform Numbers

In the storied history of Giants baseball, 13 former players or managers have enjoyed careers worthy of their jersey numbers being retired by the club. Only the New York Yankees (23) have retired more numbers. The 13 Giant greats are honored at Oracle Park with their names and retired uniform numbers displayed along the left field suite level facade.

Christy Mathewson and John McGraw, who both predated the use of numbers on jerseys, are recognized along with fellow New York Giants Bill Terry (#3), Mel Ott (#4), Carl Hubbell (#11) and Monte Irvin (#20). Willie Mays (#24), who played for the club on both coasts, joins former San Francisco stars Will Clark (#22), Barry Bonds (#25), Juan Marichal (#27), Orlando Cepeda (#30), Gaylord Perry (#36) and Willie McCovey (#44) in this select group.

The Giants also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform number (42) was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his arrival in the big leagues.

In 2004, the Giants commemorated two of baseball's greatest broadcasters with disks honoring Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons.

The Giants recognize the following individuals, who have been honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their contributions to the game: Lindsey Nelson (Ford C. Frick Award, 1988), Leonard Koppett (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1992), Bob Stevens (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 1998), Nick Peters (J.G. Taylor Spink Award, 2009) and Jon Miller (Ford C. GIANTS POSTSEASON APPEARANCES

The Giants' 27 postseason appearances (since 1900) are the sixth-most all-time behind the New York Yankees (59), Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (38), St. Louis Cardinals (32), Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves (30) and Philadelphia/Kansas City/Oakland Athletics (29).

The Giants' eight championships are also tied for the fifth-most in Major League history with the Dodgers. Only the Yankees (27), Cardinals (11) Red Sox (9) and Athletics (9) have more.

The Giants are one of five major American professional sports franchise in this century (2000-present) with three titles during a five-year span. The others are the New England Patriots (2001, 2003, 2004, 2015, 2017, 2019), Kansas City Chiefs (2020, 2023, 2024), Los Angeles Lakers (2000, 2001, 2002) and San Antonio Spurs (2003, 2005, 2007).

National League Wild Card

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PITTSBURGH PIRATES
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

The Giants defeated the Pirates, 8-0, in the National League Wild Card game backed by the arm of Madison Bumgarner and the bat of Brandon Crawford. Bumgarner threw a four-hitter while striking out 10 batters and Crawford hit a grand slam in the 4th inning off Edinson Volquez, sending the Giants from a winner-take-all wild-card game to a National League Division Series matchup with the Washington Nationals.

With the bases loaded in the 4th inning and nobody out in a scoreless game, Crawford turned on Volquez's hanging breaking ball and sent it to right field, landing a few rows deep and giving the Giants a 4-0 lead while silencing a PNC Park crowd of 40,629. Crawford became the first shortstop to hit a grand slam in postseason history and he joined Chuck Hiller (1962 World Series), Will Clark (1989 National League Championship Series) and Buster Posey (2012 NLDS) as the only Giants to hit a grand slam in postseason play.

Bumgarner, meanwhile, dominated one of the NL's best lineups, walking one and allowing just four singles on 109 pitches, 79 for strikes. Moments after finishing his shut-out, Bumgarner found himself surrounded by teammates in the middle of the diamond celebrating a playoff victory.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 1 GAME TO 0)

A game billed as a matchup between two of the Majors' most dominant pitchers proved exactly that as Noah Syndergaard and Madison Bumgarner matched zeroes for the first 7.0 innings. Syndergaard held the Giants hitless through 5.2 innings until a Denard Span single ended the no-hit bid. Bumgarner went the distance, scattering just four hits and two walks to go with six strikeouts.

With Mets closer Jeurys Familia on the mound and the game still locked in a scoreless tie in the top of the 9th, Brandon Crawford ripped a double to left-center on one of the few hard-hit balls of the night. Familia struck out Angel Pagan, then walked Joe Panik.

Next up, Conor Gillaspie, who crushed a three-run homer that accounted for all the game's runs. Gillaspie became the third player in Major League history whose first career postseason home run was a go-ahead homer in the 9th inning or later in a winner-take-all game.

Meanwhile, Bumgarner became the first pitcher in baseball history with multiple postseason winner-take-all complete game shutouts.

National League Division Series

1997 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. FLORIDA MARLINS

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 0)

San Francisco won its first National League West title since 1989 to become only the fourth team during the 20th century to win its division after finishing in last place the previous season.

The Giants outdueled the Dodgers in a classic pennant race for the N.L. West flag. Perhaps the crowning moment of San Francisco's magical ride came Sept. 18 when catcher Brian Johnson led off the 12th inning with a game-winning clout off Los Angeles' Mark Guthrie to put the Giants in a first place tie with nine games remaining.

New General Manager Brian Sabean revamped the Giants roster, bringing in 15 players who were not in the organization at the end of the 1996 campaign. He shocked the baseball world by acquiring All-Star pitchers Wilson Alvarez and Roberto Hernandez and 18-year Major League veteran pitcher Danny Darwin from the Chicago White Sox in exchange for six minor leaguers at the July 31 trading deadline.

The renewed Giants made their first post season appearance in eight years when they faced National League Wild Card entry Florida Marlins in the Division Series. Despite losing all three games of the series, San Francisco gave Florida its toughest test en route to its first World Championship.

Both Games #1 and #2 came down to the last at-bat, with Florida taking advantage of being the home club and posting 2-1 and 7-6 victories, respectively.

Despite two solo home runs by Giants' second baseman Jeff Kent in Game #3, the Marlins finished off the sweep on the strength of Devon White's 6th inning grand slam off Alvarez.

2000 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK METS

(METS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

San Francisco won its second National League West title in four years as the club posted a Major League-best 97-65 mark, only to see its October run stopped short by the Wild Card New York Mets, a club that would eventually win the NL flag.

The Giants enjoyed a truly magical regular season, its first in its new jewel of a home, Pacific Bell Park. Playing in front of 81 straight sellouts that accounted for a franchise-record 3,244,320 fans, San Francisco rattled off a 55-26 ledger, matching the Mets for the best home mark in the majors.

Dusty Baker won his third NL Manager of the Year award after guiding his troops to a Major League-best 51-26 record after the All-Star Break, resulting in an 11-game cushion, the Giants' largest winning margin since 1913.

San Francisco produced its most prolific offensive attack in 70 years, led by National League Most Valuable Player Jeff Kent. Teammate Barry Bonds, who finished second in the MVP voting, clubbed 49 home runs.

The Giants jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the NLDS with a 5-1 victory in front of a raucous Game #1 crowd at Pacific Bell Park. Livan Hernandez held New York to one run over 7.2 innings while Ellis Burks clubbed a three-run, 3rd-inning homer off the left field foul pole.

J.T. Snow's dramatic three-run, pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 9th tied Game #2 4-4, but the Mets would rally to win 5-4 in 10 innings and even the series at a game apiece.

Unfortunately for San Francisco, its offense went south when the club went East, as the Giants could manage only two runs in 22 innings at Shea Stadium. New York's Benny Agbayani gave the Mets a 3-2 victory in Game #3 with a 13th inning solo home run, and Bobby Jones hurled a one-hit shutout for a 4-0 win in the Game #4 clincher.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ATLANTA BRAVES
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

Following a 3-0 loss at Florida on August 18, a stagnant San Francisco club stood at 66-56, four games behind Los Angeles in the NL Wild Card chase. From then on, the Giants would play like champions, going 29-10 down the stretch to capture the league's fourth playoff spot by three and a half contests over the Dodgers.

Despite a 95-win campaign that tied for the fourth-most victories in San Francisco history, the Giants entered the NLDS as heavy underdogs to the Atlanta Braves, who captured their 11th-consecutive division crown by an astounding 19.0-game margin.

Undaunted by their opponents and buoyed by the right arm of starter Russ Ortiz, the Giants stormed into Turner Field and won the series opener by an 8-5 count as Rich Aurilia, Benito Santiago and J.T. Snow all collected two RBI apiece.

Yet, the hope of Game #1 quickly turned into despair, as Atlanta backed the stout pitching of Kevin Millwood and Greg Maddux, respectively, with 17 combined runs in a pair of routs to take a 2-1 series lead.

Facing the prospect of a long winter, San Francisco turned to past playoff hero Livan Hernandez to work his magic once again in Game #4 at Pacific Bell Park. The big right-hander responded by hurling 8.1-strong innings, while Aurilia finished 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI as the Giants won 8-3 to force a return trip to Atlanta.

In the decisive Game #5, Barry Bonds exorcised his demons of postseasons past, singling and scoring the Giants' first run in the 2nd and clubbing an opposite-field, solo homer in the 4th that gave SF a 2-0 lead. Ortiz became the first Giants pitcher to win two games in the same post season series since Carl Hubbell went 2-0 in the 1933 World Series, yet San Francisco's 3-1 victory was in doubt until the end. With two men on and none out in the 9th, closer Robb Nen struck out Gary Sheffield then induced Chipper Jones to ground into a series-ending double play.

(MARLINS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

For the first time since 1936-37, the Giants earned consecutive appearances in postseason play, as the club won its third National League West title in seven years and became only the second team in franchise history to go wire-to-wire with an overall finish of 100-61.

A flurry of offseason moves brought new faces to San Francisco as the team introduced first year manager Felipe Alou and four new starters to the lineup. The revamped club breezed by their opposition, ending their campaign 15.5 games ahead of the Dodgers for the Giants' largest advantage in 91 years.

General Manager Brian Sabean garnered Executive of the Year accolades for constructing the team with the third best record in baseball and Barry Bonds earned his unprecedented sixth National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Headed into Game #1 of the NLDS rested and primed for success, pitching ace Jason Schmidt thrived in the intense atmosphere at SBC Park, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Giants blanked the visiting Marlins 2-0.

A sudden turn of events plagued the Giants in Game #2, as San Francisco saw their 4-1 lead quickly vanish as Gold Glovers made costly miscues and the Marlins escaped SBC Park with a 9-5 win.

Knotted up at 1-1, both teams headed to South Florida, but the Giants' run of bad luck seemed to follow. After taking a 3-2 advantage in the 11th inning of Game #3, SF let the Marlins slip back into the contest after a dropped fly ball by Jose Cruz, Jr. allowed the tying run on base. With two out, the bases loaded and a 1-2 count on Ivan Rodriguez, Tim Worrell's next pitch was drilled into right field for a game-winning, two-run single.

In Game #4, San Francisco's furious comeback in the 9th fell short as J.T. Snow was thrown out at the plate on Jeffrey Hammonds' two-out single to left, giving the Marlins a 7-6 victory and ending the Giants' hopes for another playoff run.

After clinching the 2010 NL West Crown in the final game of the regular season, the Giants entered the NL Division Series at home vs. the Atlanta Braves. In order to get there, Giants' General Manager Brian Sabean had built a pitching staff that led the Majors in ERA with a 3.36 figure, while also revamping his offense throughout the season by acquiring difference-making outfielders Pat Burrell and Cody Ross as well as bringing up eventual 2010 NL Rookie of the Year Buster Posey from the minor leagues in late May.

San Francisco made a push for the 2010 NL West title on August 27. Entering that day, SF was 6.0 games back of the San Diego Padres, however the Giants were red hot in the season's final month, posting an 18-8 record, which was the second-best winning percentage in baseball.

The Giants would win the NLDS over the Braves 3-games-to-1 behind their stalwart pitching as all four games in the series were decided by a one-run margin, which marked the first time in postseason history in which every game was decided by one run. The pitching staff posted a 1.66 ERA as Tim Lincecum was dominant in his postseason debut, tossing a two-hit, 14-strikeout shutout during the Giants' 1-0 win in Game #1.

San Francisco lost Game #2 as the Braves' Rick Ankiel hit a splash hit home run in the top of the 11th frame to help Atlanta pull ahead 5-4.

The next two games were won in dramatic fashion as SF rallied past the Braves 3-2 in Game #3, thanks in part to three fielding errors by Atlanta second baseman Brooks Conrad.

Madison Bumgarner came up aces in Game #4 as he held Atlanta to two runs in 6.0 innings in his postseason debut.

However, it was Cody Ross who played hero in the clinching game as he homered in the 6th inning to break up Derek Lowe's no-hit bid, while also driving in the go-ahead run in the 7th inning as SF won 3-2 and clinched their first division series since 2002.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CINCINNATI REDS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2012 edition of the Giants won the division title despite crushing injuries and unexpected slumps. All-Star closer Brian Wilson was lost for the year after a second Tommy John surgery, Freddy Sanchez never returned after battling back and shoulder issues, Melky Cabrera, acquired in the offseason, was lost in mid-August after testing positive for testosterone and two-time Cy Young award winner Tim Lincecum was having the worst season of his career.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers, with an influx of cash, shook the baseball world with a nine player trade with the Red Sox, centered around slugger Adrian Gonzalez going back to the West Coast.

However, All-Star catcher and 2012 MVP Buster Posey, along with mid-season acquisitions Marco Scutaro and Hunter Pence, ignited the Giants and after trailing the Dodgers by 7.5 games as late as May 28, they slowly chipped away and ended up winning the West by a whopping 8.0 games, their second division title in the last three seasons.

Their first round opponent in the playoffs, the Cincinnati Reds, led by Joey Votto and Brandon Phillips, stormed into San Francisco and took the first two games from the Giants, winning by scores of 5-2 and 9-0. Facing the daunting task of being down 2-0 in the best-of-five division series, the Giants now had to win three consecutive games on the road, something that had never been accomplished in baseball postseason history.

With all the local and national media counting the Giants out, Pence stood up and fired up his teammates with a football-like huddle and rallying speech in the dugout prior to Game #3, a game in which SF won 2-1, avoiding a sweep.

In Game #4, Angel Pagan hit the first leadoff home run in Giants' postseason history, and Gregor Blanco and Pablo Sandoval connected later for an 8-3 victory that evened the series at 2-2.

Not just any comeback would get SF back to playing for a pennant. It would take one of Giant proportions and Posey helped make it happen as he hit the third grand slam in Giants' postseason history and San Francisco pulled off an unprecedented revival, moving to the LCS with a 6-4 victory over the Reds in the deciding Game #5.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS

San Francisco defeated the heavily favored Washington Nationals, three-games-to-one in the National League Division Series.

Jake Peavy pitched no-hit ball for 4.0 innings and didn't allow a run in his 5.2-inning outing in Game #1. Hunter Strickland bailed Peavy out of a bases-loaded jam in the 6th by striking out Ian Desmond. Bryce Harper and Asdrubal Cabrera each hit solo homers off Strickland in the 7th as the Nationals cut a 3-0 deficit to 3-2. Sergio Romo worked out of a jam in the 8th and Santiago Casilla retired all three hitters in the 9th for the save.

What became the longest-ever postseason game in terms of time (6:23) and tied for the longest in terms of innings had seemed headed for a conclusion in the 9th in Game #2. Washington's Jordan Zimmermann had a 1-0 lead, was working on a three-hitter and had retired 20 consecutive batters before walking Joe Panik with two outs in the final frame. Manager Matt Williams then brought in Drew Storen to face Buster Posey, who hit a first-pitch single, and then Pablo Sandoval tied the game by slicing a double into the left-field corner to bring home Panik. The Nats' relay was just in time to cut down Posey at the plate. The game soon spun into extra innings. Yusmeiro Petit threw 6.0-shutout innings, during which he allowed one hit and struck out seven. Leading off the 18th, Brandon Belt drove a Tanner Roark pitch over the right-field wall to put the Giants in front. Strickland preserved the edge in the bottom of the inning to pick up the save.

The Giants' 10-game postseason winning streak ended with an error in Game #3. Madison Bumgarner and Doug Fister were locked in a scoreless matchup in the 7th before the San Francisco ace inaccurately threw to 3rd after fielding Wilson Ramos' sacrifice bunt. Two runs scored on the errant throw.

A bases-loaded walk to Gregor Blanco and an RBI groundout by Panik gave the Giants a 2-0 lead in the second inning of Game #4. Hunter Pence made one of the Giants' top defensive plays of the postseason in the 6th when he banged into the right-field wall as he tracked down Jayson Werth's drive. However, Bryce Harper homered off Strickland in the following inning to tie the game at 2-2. The Giants regained the lead for good in the bottom of the inning on Aaron Barrett's wild pitch on which Panik came home. With two outs and the bases empty in the 9th, Casilla walked Harper before getting Wilson Ramos on a grounder to Panik at second. The Giants soon would spray champagne and prepare to meet the Cardinals in the NLCS.

2016 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. CHICAGO CUBS
(CUBS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

The heavily favored Cubs defeated the Giants three-games-to-one in the best-of-five division series. Jon Lester outdueled Johnny Cueto in Game #1, a 1-0 Giants loss. Both Lester and Cueto logged 8.0 innings each, with the difference, a solo home run off the bat of Javier Baez in the 8th inning off Cueto making the Cubs Game #1 winners.

Game #2 pitted Jeff Samardzija against Kyle Hendricks and both starters lasted less than four innings, with Hendricks being removed due to injury and Samardzija getting roughed up for four runs on six hits in just 2.0 innings of work. Cubs relief pitcher Travis Wood homered off George Kontos and the Giants could not overcome an early 4-0 deficit as they dropped a 5-2 decision to go down 0-2 in the series.

The Giants needed a win in Game #3 or they would find themselves packing their bags for the offseason. It took 13.0 innings, but the Giants outlasted the Cubs by a 6-5 score to get into the win column. The Giants rallied for three runs off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the 8th to go ahead 5-3, then the Cubs stormed back to tie the score at 5-5 in the 9th. Four innings later, Brandon Crawford led off the 13th with a double and Joe Panik followed with a double off the right field wall, giving San Francisco the walk-off win.

Game #4 will leave a sour taste in Giants' fans mouths for a while as the team led 5-2 in the 9th and were just three outs away from pushing the series back to Chicago for a deciding fifth and final game. However, the Giants' bullpen, a problem for SF the latter part of the season, unraveled by giving up four runs on four hits and an error in the final frame to allow the Cubs to take a 6-5 victory.

Giants starter Matt Moore had one of his best starts of the year, allowing just two runs on two hits with 10 strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work.

2021 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. LOS ANGELES DODGERS

(DODGERS WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 2)

The 2021 NL West Champion Giants concluded their 139th regular season of play by winning their sixth NL West title and first since 2012, beating the Dodgers by just 1.0 game in the division with an overall record of 107-55, the Giants' best record in franchise history.

The Giants and Dodgers matched up in the Division Series, the first time these teams faced one another in the postseason. It was the first-ever postseason meeting that two teams played one another after winning at least 105 games in the regular season (LA won 106 games).

Game #1 pitted Logan Webb against Walker Buehler, with Webb outdueling the Dodgers ace by pitching 7.2-scoreless innings with 10 strikeouts. Webb became the fourth Giant to strike out double-digit batters in his first career postseason game and was the only one of the four to not allow a walk in the Giants 4-0 victory

The Dodgers dominated Game #2 by winning 9-2, scoring seven of the nine runs in the final four innings.

Game #3 was a matchup between former Dodger Alex Wood and Max Scherzer. Evan Longoria provided the game's only run in the 5th inning by hitting a solo homer and the Giants took a two games to one series lead. It marked the Giants' 100th career postseason win and their 27th postseason shutout all-time.

Anthony DeSclafani, making his postseason debut, lasted just 1.2 innings, allowing two runs on five hits in his Game #4 start as the Giants dropped the fourth game by a 7-2 count. Mookie Betts led the Dodgers with three RBI.

In the fifth and final game of the series on October 14 at Oracle Park, the Dodgers and Giants were tied at 1-1 heading into the 9th inning before LA took a 2-1 lead on a Cody Bellinger RBI single. That was all LA needed as Max Scherzer closed out the victory to advance the Dodgers to the NLCS.

National League Championship Series

(PIRATES WIN SERIES, 3 GAMES TO 1)

After winning its first National League West crown, San Francisco entered the National League Championship Series as the favorite against Eastern Division titlists Pittsburgh. The Giants had posted nine wins in 12 contests vs. the Pirates during the regular season.

However, the Giants ran into the hot hitting of Pirates' first baseman Bob Robertson, who clubbed four home runs to lead Pittsburgh to a three games-to-one series victory.

Since staff ace Juan Marichal pitched San Francisco to the NL West flag in its season finale at San Diego, future Hall of Famer Gaylord Perry got the call in Game #1. The right-hander scattered four runs (three earned) and nine hits over his complete game effort as Willie McCovey and Tito Fuentes each delivered two-run home runs in the fourth inning to power SF to a 5-4 victory.

Then Robertson took over. He clubbed a NLCS record three home runs in Game #2 to lead the Pirates to a 9-4 triumph. The first baseman finished 4-for-4 with four runs scored and five RBI as Pittsburgh's victory ended a six-game losing streak at Candlestick Park.

Marichal pitched a four-hitter when the playoffs shifted to Three Rivers Stadium for Game #3, but home runs by Robertson and Richie Hebner gave the Pirates a 2-1 victory behind Bob Johnson and Dave Guisti. The Bucs advanced to the World Series when they tattooed Perry for seven runs and 10 hits over 5.2 innings in the fourth and final game of the series.

1987 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

(CARDINALS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants became only the fourth team in Major League history since 1900 to finish first within two years of a 100-loss disaster. SF rattled off a 90-72 mark to win the 1987 National League West crown after going 62-100 in 1985.

San Francisco battled back from a five-game deficit on Aug. 7 and went 37-17 the rest of the way to capture its first NL West title in 16 years.

Jeffrey Leonard, whose "one-flap-down" home run trot was the story of the series, became the first player on a losing team to capture the NLCS MVP honor when he hit .417 with four home runs and five RBI despite the Giants falling to the Cardinals in seven games. San Francisco split the first two games of the series in St. Louis, with Dave Dravecky, who was acquired from the San Diego Padres in a seven-player deal on July 4, shutting out the Cardinals on two hits in Game #2. When the series moved to Candlestick Park, the Giants took a 4-0, fifth-inning advantage in Game #3 but the Cardinals roared back to post a 6-5 victory and take a 2-1 lead in the series.

Leonard responded by crushing a two-run clout in the fifth inning of the fourth game to push San Francisco to a series-evening 4-2 triumph. His four homers in four games tied the Championship Series record for a league playoff of any duration.

The Giants took a three games-to-two series advantage back to St. Louis after posting a 6-3 victory in the fifth contest. However, San Francisco didn't score a run in either of the last two games.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. CHICAGO CUBS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

Will Clark carried the Giants to their first NL pennant in 27 years when San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games.

Clark provided offensive bookends in the series, starting with six RBI in the opener and ending with a two-out, bases-loaded, series-winning two-run single in the eighth inning of Game #5. "Will the Thrill" established new NLCS standards for average (.650), hits (13), runs (eight), total bases (24) and slugging percentage (1.200).

Included in those opening-game six RBI for Clark was his fourth-inning grand slam off Cubs' starter Greg Maddux, which gave San Francisco an 8-3 lead. The Giants' first baseman finished the contest 4-for-4 with four runs scored, a double and two home runs.

The Cubs claimed victory in Game #2, so the series headed to San Francisco tied a game apiece. However, Robby Thompson clubbed a two-run, 7th-inning homer off Les Lancaster to give the Giants a 5-4 victory in the third game.

In one of the most intense at-bats in Giants' postseason history in Game #4, Matt Williams locked up with lefty Steve Wilson in a 12-pitch plate appearance that resulted in a two-run blast which propelled San Francisco to a 6-4 victory.

As broadcaster Hank Greenwald said, "27 years of waiting have come to an end" when the Giants posted a 3-2 come-from-behind victory in Game #5. Clark once again delivered the game-winner, a two-run single up the spine of the infield off Mitch "Wild Thing" Williams.

Following a furious late-season run to capture the Wild Card berth and a stirring five-game NLDS victory over Atlanta, the Giants provided the only truly fitting encore—they won the club's first NL pennant in 13 years by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a scintillating and highly competitive five-contest NLCS.

San Francisco began its run to the Fall Classic by winning each of the first two contests in St. Louis. The Giants pounded Cardinals ace Matt Morris early and often en route to a 9-6 victory in Game #1, while Jason Schmidt turned in a dominating Game #2 performance. The right-hander struck out eight and carried a shutout into the eighth inning, while Rich Aurilia's two-homer, three-RBI effort spurred a 4-1 triumph.

Despite Barry Bonds' dramatic three-run, fifth-inning homer into McCovey Cove that briefly tied Game #3 at Pacific Bell Park, a solo clout by St. Louis' Eli Marrero and stingy pitching by the Cardinal bullpen gave the visitors a 5-4 win and renewed hope.

St. Louis jumped out to a 2-0, 1st-inning lead in Game #4 and appeared on its way to evening the series until a pair of Giants veterans turned the tide. In the 6th, J.T. Snow delivered a two-out, two-run double that knotted the contest. Following a two-out intentional walk to Bonds in the eighth, Benito Santiago cemented his series MVP honors by clubbing a full-count offering from Rick White into the left field bleachers for a 4-2 lead. Robb Nen struck out the final two hitters in the 9th to strand the tying run at third and close out a 4-3 SF victory.

Giants' lefty Kirk Rueter and Morris engaged in a classic October pitchers' duel in a Game #5 that was scoreless until St. Louis broke through with a run in the 7th. Bonds tied the contest 1-1 with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly, thus setting the stage for one of the most dramatic moments in San Francisco history.

Morris retired the first two Giants hitters in the bottom of the 9th inning, but was chased by consecutive singles from David Bell and Shawon Dunston. St. Louis turned to reliever Steve Kline, and Kenny Lofton greeted the southpaw by lining his first pitch into right-center field for a single that scored a sliding Bell as the jubilant NL champion Giants poured onto the field.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants again relied upon the strength of their pitching in the League Championship Series as they went on to win the best-of-seven LCS from the Phillies to clinch their 18th National League Pennant and fourth while in San Francisco.

Tim Lincecum outdueled Roy Halladay in Game #1 as Cody Ross hit a pair of solo home runs off of the eventual 2010 NL Cy Young award winner to help the Giants defeat the Phillies 4-3 in the opener.

Game #2 did not go as scripted for San Francisco as the Phillies' Roy Oswalt allowed just one run in 8.0 innings and Jimmy Rollins drove in four runs as the Phillies won 6-1. Ross was the lone bright spot for Giants' offense as he connected for his third home run of the series, which tied the game at one apiece in the 5th inning.

San Francisco grabbed a 2-1 edge in Game #3 with a 3-0 shutout behind Matt Cain, who stymied the Phillies in 7.0 innings, allowing just two hits. The Giants scored in the 4th as once again it was Ross who delivered a run-scoring single, which helped cement his status as the NLCS MVP.

Juan Uribe delivered a walk-off sacrifice fly off Roy Oswalt with one out in the 9th inning as SF took Game #4 by a 6-5 count. Buster Posey also contributed offensively going 4-for-4 and becoming the first rookie in the San Francisco era and second in club history to record four hits in a postseason game.

The Giants entered Game #5 just one win away from clinching their 18th NL Pennant and had their ace on the mound with Lincecum. However, the Phillies countered with Roy Halladay, who was pitching with an injured right groin. The injury did not deter him as the Phillies won 4-2, which sent the series back to Philadelphia.

Early during Game #6 it appeared as if the series would go to seven games, as Giants' starter Jonathan Sanchez worked just 2.0 innings, allowing a pair of runs. However, the bullpen was stellar, combining for 7.0-scoreless innings to keep the Giants in the game. Juan Uribe hit an opposite-field home run that barely cleared the right-field wall in the 8th inning, sending the Giants' dugout into a frenzy. Brian Wilson was called upon after Lincecum, and, allowed consecutive one-out singles in the 8th. Wilson got Carlos Ruiz to lineout into a double-play to escape the frame. The Giants' closer then made things interesting in the 9th, issuing walks to Jimmy Rollins and Chase Utley, before striking out Ryan Howard looking to end the game.

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

After a historic win over the Cincinnati Reds in the Division Series, the Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals in the League Championship Series for the third time in postseason history. It marked the first time in LCS history that the previous two World Series winners had met.

The clubs split the first two games in San Francisco, with Carlos Beltrán and David Freese each hitting two-run home runs to lift the Cardinals to a 6-4 victory in Game #1. In Game #2, Marco Scutaro hit a two-run single in San Francisco's four run 4th inning before leaving with a hip injury and the Giants received their first home win in the postseason, with a 7-1 victory to even the LCS at one game apiece.

The series shifted to St. Louis and the Cards took advantage of the home field as Matt Carpenter hit a two-run home run after subbing for Beltrán, and the Cardinals chased Matt Cain before a three and a half hour rain delay in the 7th inning of a 3-1 Red Bird Game #3 win.

The Giants were routed 8-3 in Game #4. Adam Wainwright threw 7.0 innings of four-hit ball and St. Louis' offense roughed up Tim Lincecum and the Giants' bullpen.

Facing elimination for the fourth time in the 2012 postseason, the Giants' sent Barry Zito to the mound in Game #5 and the soft-tossing lefty was at his best, pitching San Francisco back into the series with a 5-0 win that narrowed SF's deficit to 3-2. Zito resembled the same guy who won the 2002 AL Cy Young Award with the A's, as he retired 11 consecutive batters in one stretch while striking out six in 7.2 innings.

Back in San Francisco for a Game #6, the Giants chased opposing starter Chris Carpenter to an early exit in their 6-1 victory that forced the series to a decisive Game #7. Ryan Vogelsong finished with nine strikeouts, a career-high for any game.

Hunter Pence got the Giants going with a weird double, Cain pitched his second clincher of the postseason and the Giants closed out Game #7 of the LCS in a rainstorm, routing the Cardinals 9-0 to advance to the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history, the fifth time since moving to San Francisco and for the second time in the last three seasons.

San Francisco won its record-tying sixth elimination game of the postseason, completing a lopsided rally from a 3-1 deficit. Scutaro recorded his sixth multi-hit game of the series and matched an LCS record with 14 hits and Pablo Sandoval drove in a run for his fifth straight game. After falling behind in the series 3-games-to-1, the Giants outscored the Cardinals 20-1 over the final three games behind stellar pitching performances from Zito, Vogelsong and Cain.

The underdog Giants beat the Cardinals four-games-to-one in the National League Championship Series.

In Game #1, Madison Bumgarner (named the NLCS MVP) threw 7.2 innings, extending his road postseason scoreless streak to a major-league-record 26.2 innings. He allowed four hits, struck out seven and walked one. Sergio Romo and Santiago Casilla retired the final four St. Louis hitters in order.

Game #2 was one of the Giants' best postseason games in 2014. St. Louis led 2-0 before the Giants scored single runs in the 5th, 6th and 7th innings to go in front 3-2. Cardinals rookie Oscar Taveras hit a pinch-hit homer off Jean Machi in the bottom of the 7th to tie the game. In the following frame, Matt Adams homered off Hunter Strickland to make it 4-3, Cardinals. With men at first and second and two outs in the 9th, Trevor Rosenthal uncorked a wild pitch on a 3-2 delivery to Joe Panik. Going on the pitch, pinch-runner Matt Duffy motored home for a 4-4 game. The tie didn't last 9th inning by hitting an 0-1 pitch from Romo into the right field seats, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 win.

The Giants won Game #3, 5-4 in 10 innings. Tim Hudson had a 4-0 lead before the Cardinals would whittle the margin to 4-3 and tie the game on Hudson's final pitch. Brandon Crawford opened the bottom of the 10th inning by drawing a walk from lefty Randy Choate. Juan Perez then lined a single to left before Gregor Blanco followed by dropping down a bunt between the mound and the third-base line. Choate grabbed it and made an errant throw to first base allowing Crawford to score the winning run.

After St. Louis built a 4-1 lead in the 3rd off Ryan Vogelsong in Game #4, the Giants answered with two in the bottom of the inning, getting two-out RBI singles from Buster Posey and Hunter Pence. Yusmeiro Petit blanked the Cardinals over the next three innings to pick up the win.

Game #5 was perhaps one of the most memorable postseason games in Giants history. Panik put SF up 2-1 in the 3rd inning after hitting a two-run homer off Adam Wainwright. However, Matt Adams and Tony Cruz hit solo HRs off Bumgarner in the 4th, giving the Cards a 3-2 lead. Bumgarner did not allow a baserunner after Cruz's homer, setting down the final 13 men he faced. Wainwright had retired 10 straight through the 7th, but Pat Neshek replaced him to begin the 8th. Pinch-hitter Michael Morse greeted Neshek with a drive over the wall in left to tie the game and send the AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy. The Cardinals sent Michael Wacha to the mound in the 9th. Pablo Sandoval opened the inning with a single, and Joaquin Arias pinch-ran for him. With one out, Wacha lost all contact with the strike zone, throwing four consecutive balls to Brandon Belt and falling behind Travis Ishikawa 2-0. Ishikawa proceeded to etch his name next to Bobby Thomson's for hitting a home run that propelled the Giants to the World Series.

World Series

1905 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

The Fall Classic returned after a year's hiatus and Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson made it his showcase, leading the Giants to their first World Championship with three shutout victories.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who had 32 victories in 1905 to register his third straight 30-win season, shut down the Philadelphia Athletics in New York's five-game victory. In the space of six days, he pitched three shutouts and permitted just 14 hits overall.

Mathewson even played a part in the Giants' offense during a 3-0 Game #1 victory in Philadelphia. He ignited a two-run rally in the fifth inning to break open a scoreless contest, then went on to shut out the Athletics on four hits.

New York skipper John McGraw, who boycotted the 1904 World Series vs. the Boston Red Sox, didn't have to rely solely on Mathewson to get him the title. He also had Red Ames and Joe McGinnity, who won 22 and 21 games during the regular season, respectively, in his rotation.

Those two hurlers worked in Game #2, but McGinnity was ticketed with the defeat after surrendering three unearned runs in a 3-0 defeat.

Mathewson was staked to a 2-0, 1st inning lead in Game #3 and responded by blanking Philadelphia on four hits. First baseman Dan McGann was the Giants' big gun in the 9-0 romp, collecting two singles and a double while driving in four runs.

McGinnity rebounded from his Game #2 defeat to shut out Eddie Plank and Philadelphia in a classic 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game #4.

But it was Mathewson who got to finish off the job he started when he blanked the Athletics 2-0 in the fifth and deciding game.

1911 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The "running" Giants, who established a league record with 347 stolen bases, persevered through the rebuilding of the Polo Grounds and posted 99 victories to capture the National League pennant. New York had to play its home games through early June at the park of the American League's New York Highlanders (later the Yankees) after the Polo Grounds burned to the ground in April.

However, New York's offense was limited to only four stolen bases in its six-game World Series defeat to the Philadelphia Athletics.

1905 Series hero Christy Mathewson still anchored John McGraw's pitching staff, going 26-13 during the regular season. The Hall of Famer got New York off to a great start vs. Philadelphia in Game #1 of the Fall Classic, tossing a six-hitter in the 2-1 triumph.

The Athletics rebounded to take Games #2 and #3 with Frank "Home Run" Baker clubbing dramatic home runs in both outings.

Then the rains came. The World Series was put on hold for six days due to Mother Nature.

When the Fall Classic resumed exactly a week after Game #3 had been played, Mathewson was outdueled by Chief Bender in a 4-2 decision that gave the Athletics a three-games-to-one advantage.

The Giants escaped the inevitable in Game #5 by scoring a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings before getting clobbered 13-2 in the series' sixth and final game.

1912 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. BOSTON RED SOX

(RED SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, bolstered by lefty Rube Marquard's modern Major League record 19-game winning streak, lived a storybook 1912 campaign. That's until the 10th inning of the final game of the World Series, when usually-reliable center fielder Fred Snodgrass dropped a fly ball that opened the door for a two-run Boston rally that gave the Red Sox the title.

New York, which featured two 20-game winners in Marquard (26) and Christy Mathewson (23), posted 103 victories during the regular season and coasted to the pennant with a ten-game cushion.

Newcomer Jeff Tesreau, who won 17 games for the Giants, got the nod in Game #1 but suffered a 4-3 defeat to the Red Sox.

Despite a see-saw contest that saw four lead changes, Game #2 was a wash as it was called due to darkness, thus making the 1912 World Series an eight-game affair.

The Giants evened the score in Game #3, posting a 2-1 victory behind Marquard before the Red Sox got the better of Tesreau again in the fourth contest, this time by a 3-1 count.

Trailing two-games-to-one, the Giants posted 5-2 and 11-4 wins, respectively, in Games #6 and #7.

The Series came down to the 10th inning of the eighth and final game, as the Giants and Red Sox were deadlocked at 1-1 after nine innings. New York took a 2-1 lead in the top half of the 10th before the wheels fell off in the bottom half. Boston pinch hitter Clyde Engle opened the frame with a routine fly ball that Snodgrass was camped under and then dropped.

Boston eventually won the game 3-2 on a sacrifice fly in the 10th and ruined New York's magical season.

1913 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York won its third straight National League flag, but couldn't get over the hump in the World Series for the third consecutive year, falling four-games-to-one to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After winning the pennant with a twelve-game cushion, the Giants were beset by injuries during the Fall Classic. First baseman Fred Merkle was limited to 13 at-bats due to a bad leg. Center fielder Fred Snodgrass played in only two games and made three trips to the plate after suffering from a severe charley horse. Chief Meyers, the Giants' catcher, was shelved for the Series after suffering a fractured finger in practice preceding Game #2.

The Athletics jumped out to a 1-0 series advantage after shelling Rube Marquard for five runs and eight hits in five innings for a 6-4 victory in the opener.

Once again, Christy Mathewson provided New York with a fine postseason performance when he tossed a 3-0, 10-inning shutout in Game #2. He even drove in the game-winning run with his single in the 10th.

That was last highlight for the Giants as the Athletics rolled to the World Championship by posting victories in each of the last three contests.

Mathewson, pitching in what would be his final World Series, wound up with a 5-5 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic—he was 4-0 at one point—after splitting two decisions in 1913.

Skipper John McGraw was determined to restore his club to World Series glory. However, it would be another four years until the Giants would take the field again in the championship series.

1917 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CHICAGO WHITE SOX

(WHITE SOX WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants' run of bad luck continued in their fourth straight World Series defeat as they fell to the Chicago White Sox in six games.

In the sixth and deciding game, New York was in a scoreless deadlock with Chicago heading into the fourth inning. That's when the Giants' penchant for mistakes at inopportune times reared its ugly head once again. This time, Chicago second baseman Eddie Collins led off the frame with a grounder to New York third baseman Heinie Zimmerman, who made a two-base throwing error on the play. Joe Jackson's ensuing fly ball was dropped by right fielder Dave Robertson, positioning White Sox at the corners.

Chicago center fielder Happy Felsch then grounded back to the pitcher, Rube Benton, who saw Collins break from third and threw to Zimmerman in an attempt to get Collins hung up. Zimmerman ran Collins toward the plate, but the runner bounded past catcher Bill Rariden to make it a Zimmerman-Collins race to the plate. The White Sox second baseman won the footrace and distracted the Giants' defense enough to allow the baserunners to advance to second and third. Both Chicago runners would score on an ensuing base hit. That's all the White Sox would need to salt away the World Championship as they went on to win Game #6 by a 4-2 count.

Famed Olympian and footballer Jim Thorpe was on the 1917 Giants' club, but made only one "appearance" during the World Series in Game #5. He was slated to start in right field, but never took the field. The right-handed hitting Thorpe was removed for a left-handed pinch hitter after the White Sox lifted lefty hurler Reb Russell in favor of right-hander Eddie Cicotte.

1921 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 5 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants snapped a four-World Series losing streak when they outdueled the rival Yankees in a thrilling eight-game series. With both clubs playing their home contests at the Polo Grounds, it was the first Fall Classic to be played in its entirety at one stadium.

The National League champions were headlined by third baseman Frankie Frisch, right fielder Ross Youngs, first baseman George Kelly and left fielder Irish Meusel, while Babe Ruth and his 59 home runs was the sparkplug for the Yankees.

The American Leaguers jumped out to a two games-to-none lead after posting consecutive 3-0 victories. The Giants battled back from a 2-0, 2nd inning deficit in Game #3 to post a 13-5 victory. John McGraw's club knotted the Fall Classic at two games apiece when it logged a 4-2 triumph in the fourth game, despite Ruth's first World Series home run.

Ruth, hobbled by knee and arm ailments, spirited the Yankees to a 3-1 victory in Game #5 when he started the go-ahead rally with a bunt base hit.

However, the Bambino couldn't continue and the Giants took advantage of the situation to run off three straight victories and give the franchise its first World Championship since 1905. Art Nehf got the National Leaguers over the top with his four-hit, 1-0 victory in Game #8.

1922 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0 - 1 TIE)

The Giants, playing the second of four consecutive World Series, earned their berth by taking the National League pennant with a seven-game cushion.

John McGraw's club brought home its second straight title after defeating its fellow Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in a four-victory sweep that actually took five games to complete due to a tie.

Third baseman Heinie Groh, who was acquired from Cincinnati the previous winter, led the Giants to a 3-2 triumph in the opener after logging a 3-for-3 showing. The National League entrant had been shut out by Joe Bush through seven innings, before it stormed back from a two-run deficit on Irish Meusel's two-run single and Ross Youngs' sacrifice fly.

Meusel got back in the act quickly in Game #2, drilling a three-run home run off Bob Shawkey in the 1st inning. However, the Yankees battled back to tie the contest at 3-3 and it was inexplicably called because of "darkness" after the 10th inning by umpire George Hildebrand, despite at least a half-hour of daylight remaining.

Jack Scott, who went 8-2 in just 17 games for the Giants, tossed a four-hitter at the Yankees in Game #3 and led the National Leaguers to a 3-0 victory.

The Giants managed to post 4-3 and 5-3 victories in the fourth and fifth games, respectively, to advance to their second straight title. It also helped that the Giants' pitchers shut down Babe Ruth over the final three outings, holding him 0-for-9.

The 1922 World Championship would prove to be the third and final one in the illustrious career of the Giants' winningest skipper, John McGraw.

1923 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

It was an all-New York World Series for the third straight year, but there were a few changes. First, the Yankees moved into their own ballpark, Yankee Stadium. Second and most importantly, the American League entrant ended the Giants' two-year reign as World Champions.

The man who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Yankees was a Giants' outfielder who would later become synonymous with the club from the Bronx–Casey Stengel.

The 34-year-old outfielder christened World Series play in Yankee Stadium when he lined a ninth inning Joe Bush offering into left-center field that got between the outfielders for an inside-the-park home run, breaking a 4-4 draw and giving the Giants a 5-4 triumph in Game #1.

The Yankees, who had not defeated the Giants in their last nine World Series meetings (eight defeats, one tie), finally broke through in Game #2 when Babe Ruth clubbed two home runs in the 4-2 victory.

When the Series returned to Yankee Stadium for Game #3, Stengel shared the stage with pitcher Art Nehf. The outfielder broke open a scoreless duel with a home run into the right field stands. Nehf finished off the American Leaguers after allowing five singles and a double in the 1-0 win.

That was all she wrote for the Giants as the Yankees rattled off three consecutive victories to win their first World Championship. The American Leaguers coasted to 8-4 and 8-1 victories in Games #4 and #5, respectively.

In the sixth and final contest, Ruth got the Yanks off to a great start with his first inning, upper deck blast. But the A.L. entrant would need a five-run 8th inning to post the 6-4 decider.

1924 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(SENATORS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

The Giants made their fourth straight appearance in the Fall Classic, but they faced someone other than the Yankees for the first time during that span when they squared off with the Washington Senators.

New York was the National League representative in the World Series for the eighth time in 14 years, but it had to scramble to win the flag by one-and-a-half games over Brooklyn.

With the World Series tied at three games apiece, horrored legacies of Merkle, Snodgrass and Zimmerman returned to longtime Giants' fans. Despite making three errors in the final contest, New York was done in twice by the infield at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

New York took a 3-1 advantage into the 8th inning of that final contest. With two outs and the bases-loaded, Senators' second baseman/manager Bucky Harris hit a grounder that skipped over the head of 18-year-old third baseman Freddie Lindstrom. Two runs scored on the bad-hop single to tie the game.

The contest remained deadlocked until the bottom of the 12th inning, when Giants' catcher Hank Gowdy tripped over his mask and dropped a Muddy Ruel pop. The Washington catcher responded with a double down the third base line. One batter later with runners on first and second, center fielder Earl McNeely grounded to third. But once again, the ball skipped over Lindstrom's head and Ruel came around to score the winning tally.

This would prove to be the final World Series appearance for Giants manager John McGraw. Although he owned a 3-6 lifetime mark in the Fall Classic, only one other manager appeared in more series – Casey Stengel with 10 trips.

1933 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. WASHINGTON SENATORS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

New York, in its first full season under new manager Bill Terry, won the National League pennant on the strong pitching of Carl Hubbell and Hal Schumacher.

The Giants entered the World Series as the underdog to the high-powered offense of the Washington Senators. However, the New Yorkers tacked up a 1.53 ERA (8er, 47.0ip) en route to their four games-to-one series victory.

Hubbell and Schumacher, who had combined for 17 shutouts during the regular season, were selected to start the first two contests vs. the Senators.

Hubbell, the second winningest pitcher in Giants history, struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run in the 4-2 victory. Outfielder Mel Ott accounted for three of New York's four runs, with his two-run home run and RBI single. Schumacher followed Hubbell's lead and allowed only a solo home run in the Giants' 6-1 Game #2 victory.

The good pitching turned on the Giants in Game #3 as Washington's Earl Whitehill tossed a five-hit shutout to give the Senators a 4-0 triumph.

Hubbell, who led the National League with 23 wins, carried a 1-1 game into the 10th inning in Game #4 when the Giants edged ahead on third baseman Travis Jackson's bunt single, a sacrifice and shortstop Blondy Ryan's single. King Carl escaped a one-out, bases-loaded jam in the bottom half of the inning with a double play to preserve New York's 2-1 victory.

Schumacher helped himself offensively in the decisive Game #5 with his two-run single in the 2nd inning. Then 43-year-old reliever Dolf Luque took over a 3-3 game and worked the final four-and-one-third innings to get the Giants in position to win. Ott took care of the offense when he drilled a solo blast into the center field stands at Griffith Stadium in the top of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory.

1936 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The Giants locked horns with their cross-town rivals, the Yankees, in the Fall Classic for the fifth time after winning the National League flag by a five-game margin.

The Yankees, who were without Babe Ruth but had Joe DiMaggio, captured the Series in six games to start a run that saw them win 16 of the next 27 World Championships.

The National Leaguers rode the arm of Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell to their 11th World Series. The 33-year-old left-hander won his last 16 decisions of the regular season to finish with a 26-6 ledger that included a 2.31 ERA.

King Carl was on the mound for the Giants in Game #1 and got the National Leaguers a 6-1 victory after allowing just seven hits, including a third inning home run by George Selkirk. Trailing 1-0 in the 5th inning, shortstop Dick Bartell launched a solo blast of his own before the Giants added another run in the 6th and four more in the 8th.

The National Leaguers' victory in Game #1 snapped a 12-game winning streak owned by the Yankees in World Series action.

The Yankees went on to win each of the next three games, outscoring the Giants by a cumulative 25-7 count.

Staving off elimination, the Giants scored a 5-4, 10-inning victory in Game #5. Manager Bill Terry, playing in the next-to-last game of his playing career, drove in the game-winner with a sacrifice fly.

The American Leaguers finished off the Polo Grounds tenants in Game #6 as they pounded out 17 hits en route to their series-clinching 13-5 victory.

1937 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

The two New York teams squared off once again in the Fall Classic, but the Yankees' offensive firepower proved to be too much for the Giants as the American League entrants took home the title in a five-game series.

The Giants, who boasted two 20-game winners in Carl Hubbell and rookie Cliff Melton, only had one big bat to combat the Yankee arsenal. Mel Ott clubbed 31 home runs and drove in 95 runs.

However, that was no match for the Yankees' lineup that had five different 100-RBI men in Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey and George Selkirk.

Hubbell was once again the Giants' Game #1 starter and was coasting along with a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the 6th. Then the Yankees produced one of their vaunted big-run innings, posting a six-run frame. The American Leaguers went on to post the 8-1 victory.

It was much of the same in Games #2 and #3 as the Yankees posted 8-1 and 5-1 triumphs, respectively.

The Giants turned the tables in Game #4 as they plated six runs in the 2nd inning, with the big blows coming from center fielder Hank Leiber. He opened the frame with a single and scored before capping off the rally with a two-run single. The National Leaguers had Hubbell on the hill and he shut down the Yankees on six hits for the 7-3 victory.

The Yankees captured their second straight title with a 4-2 win in the fifth contest.

1951 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 2)

The 1951 World Series was overshadowed by an event that took place the day before it began – "The Shot Heard 'Round the World."

Bobby Thomson's three-run, 9th-inning homer off the Dodgers' Ralph Branca in the National League-deciding playoff game put an exclamation on one of the greatest stretch drives in the history of baseball.

Manager Leo Durocher's club trailed Brooklyn by 13-and-a-half games on Aug. 11. Then the Giants rattled off 16-straight victories and won 37 of their last 44 regular-season games to force a best-of-three playoff series with the Dodgers for the National League pennant.

The momentum seemed to carry over to the next day for the opener of the World Series as Monte Irvin stole home in the first inning to register the first swipe of home since the Yankees' Bob Meusel did it in 1928. The Giants' left fielder finished the contest 4-for-5 and spearheaded a 5-1 victory.

Irvin would once again lead the National Leaguers' offense in Game #2, but his three hits weren't enough to overcome the Yankees in a 3-1 defeat.

Shortstop Eddie Stanky inspired a five-run, fifth-inning rally in Game #3 when he kicked the ball out of Phil Rizzuto's glove on a failed stolen base attempt and scrambled to third. The Giants would move on to a 6-2 triumph at the Polo Grounds.

Despite holding a two-games-to-one series lead, the Giants couldn't finish off the Yankees as the American Leaguers ran off three straight victories to claim the title.

1954 – NEW YORK GIANTS vs. CLEVELAND INDIANS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Willie Mays got the National League champion Giants off to a great start in the 1954 World Series when he made perhaps the greatest defensive play in baseball history.

With New York and Cleveland tied 2-2 in the 8th inning of Game #1 at the Polo Grounds and two Indian runners on base, the Hall of Fame center fielder made an over-the-shoulder catch of a 460-foot smash off the bat of the Indians' Vic Wertz.

The Giants went on to win 5-2 when pinch-hitter Dusty Rhodes hit a three-run, 10th-inning home run off Indians' starter Bob Lemon. Ironically, the game-winning clout went only 260 feet.

The Giants would go on to sweep the Indians in four games to register their last World Championship in an upset over the highly-touted American League champs.

Rhodes, who hit .341 in part-time duty and as a pinch-hitter deluxe during the regular season, also delivered the game-winning hits in both Games #2 and #3. However, his services weren't needed in the fourth and final contest as New York jumped out to a 7-0 advantage and coasted to the 7-4 championship-clinching victory.

New York was the surprise National League champion. After finishing fifth in 1953, the Giants were led by Mays, who won the N.L. batting title with a .345 mark that included 41 home runs and 110 RBI. The center fielder had returned to the Giants after missing the 1953 campaign due to military service.

Johnny Antonelli, another newcomer who was acquired from Milwaukee in exchange for Bobby Thomson in the off-season, won 21 games to help New York to the N.L. flag.

1962 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

(YANKEES WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

A matter of inches was the difference between the Giants bringing a World Championship to San Francisco for the first time or losing to the New York Yankees in the Fall Classic for the fifth time.

With the Giants trailing 1-0 with two outs and runners on second and third in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game #7, San Francisco's clean-up hitter Willie McCovey stepped in to face Ralph Terry. The Giants' Hall of Famer lined a one-ball, one-strike pitch toward right field, but Yankees' second baseman Bobby Richardson moved slightly to his left and threw up his glove to register the final out and the Yankees' 20th World Series crown.

San Francisco captured the National League flag by posting a late-season rally to catch Los Angeles and force a three-game playoff, which the Giants won 2-1.

The Giants carried a 2-2 tie into the 7th inning of Game #1 at Candlestick Park until Clete Boyer drilled a solo home run to spur the Yankees onto a 6-2 triumph.

Jack Sanford fired a three-hit shutout to even the Series at one-game apiece in San Francisco's 2-0 Game #2 victory. In a seesaw World Series, the Yankees would log a 3-2 Game #3 win before Giants' second baseman Chuck Hiller drilled a grand slam in the seventh inning of the fourth game to propel San Francisco to a 7-3 victory. It was the first bases-loaded clout by a National League player in World Series history.

Despite Sanford's 10-strikeout effort in seven-and-a-third innings, the Yankees posted a 5-3 win in Game #5.

As the Series moved back to San Francisco, there was a five-day delay due to a travel day and three rainouts. Once play resumed, Billy Pierce pitched a three-hitter and Orlando Cepeda posted three hits and two RBI to force a seventh game with a 5-2 Game #6 win.

1989 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. OAKLAND ATHLETICS

(ATHLETICS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

The Bay Bridge Series, which pitted the Giants against their local rival, the Oakland Athletics, will always be remembered more for the Loma Prieta earthquake than the four-game brooming by the American Leaguers.

That might be a good thing for the Giants, as they were outclassed in almost every phase of the game by the Athletics, as was evidenced by the 32-14 cumulative run total.

A's Game #1 starter Dave Stewart set the tone for this Fall Classic when he hurled a five-hit shutout at the Giants. He was backed by solo home runs from Dave Parker and Walt Weiss off San Francisco starter Scott Garrelts.

In much the same fashion, Oakland rolled to a 5-1 victory in Game #2 behind the pitching of Mike Moore.

Then it happened. Something that would make this four-game Series sweep stand out in history. At 5:04 p.m. on Oct. 17, an earthquake with a 7.1-Richter scale reading rocked the Bay Area and the 60,000 fans at Candlestick Park. With reports of damage throughout the Bay Area, the ballpark was evacuated and the game was cancelled.

Finally, 10 days later, the Athletics picked up where they had left off, as they drilled five home runs on their way to a 13-7 rout in the rescheduled Game #3. The five-homer effort, two by Dave Henderson along with single clouts from Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford and Tony Phillips, tied a Series record set by the 1928 Yankees.

The A's never trailed in the series as Rickey Henderson opened Game #4 with a home run off Giants' starter Don Robinson. The Giants would close it to 8-6 in the seventh, but that was as close they would get in the 9-6 finale.

2002 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. ANAHEIM ANGELS

(ANGELS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

In the first World Series between two Wild Card teams, the Giants and Anaheim Angels lived up to the moniker, combining to set numerous offensive records in a memorable seven-game Fall Classic.

Anaheim emerged from the fireworks with its first World Championship in franchise history, while San Francisco was saddled with heartbreak after seeing a title slip away just five outs from the pinnacle.

The clubs split the first two contests in Anaheim, with Barry Bonds grabbing the spotlight in his first appearance on the World Series stage. San Francisco's left fielder clubbed a solo homer in his first at-bat to spark a 4-3 Giants win in Game #1, then connected for a mammoth 9th-inning shot in Game #2. Not to be outdone, the Angels' Tim Salmon homered twice as Anaheim won an 11-10 slugfest to even the series.

When the scene shifted north, the Angels seemed to take control with a convincing 10-4 win in Game #3. As they had all season, the Giants battled back in Game #4, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to earn a 4-3 victory on David Bell's two-out, RBI-single in the 8th inning.

Game #5 belonged to San Francisco, as the home club delighted the 42,713 fans at Pacific Bell Park with a 16-4 rout. Jeff Kent tied Giants World Series records with four runs, two homers and four RBI, Rich Aurilia drove in three runs to establish a franchise playoff mark with 17 RBI overall, and J.T. Snow had two of his series-high 11 hits.

The Giants were eight outs from their first World Series title since 1954, as Shawon Dunston's two-run homer, Bonds' record eighth post season clout (fourth of Series), and Kent's RBI-single propelled SF to a 5-0 lead in Game #6. But the ultimate prize was wrested away as Scott Spezio's three-run, 7th-inning homer and series MVP Troy Glaus' two-run, 8th-inning double highlighted Anaheim's rally to a 6-5 victory.

San Francisco scored first in Game #7, but ultimately could not overcome the pitching of John Lackey and the bat of Garret Anderson, who delivered the deciding three-run, 3rd-inning double in Anaheim's 4-1 triumph.

2010 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. TEXAS RANGERS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 1)

It was a different story for the San Francisco Giants during the World Series as the club was bolstered by their offense and pitching to win their sixth World Championship and first since they moved from New York to San Francisco in 1958 to capture the 106th Fall Classic, 4 games to 1 over the Texas Rangers. It marked the club's first World Series win since 1954, ending the Majors' third-longest drought without a championship at that time, behind the Cubs (102 years) and Indians (62 years) as the top 2 teams at the time.

The Giants' bats were on fire as they battered Cliff Lee and the Rangers' bullpen with an 11-7 victory in the opening game of the 2010 World Series. What was originally penned as a pitchers' duel between Lee and Tim Lincecum turned out to be an offensive outburst by both teams. Freddy Sanchez finished with four of the Giants' 14 hits as Aubrey Huff went 3-for-4 with an RBI and Juan Uribe capped a six-run 5th inning with a three-run home run, which set off the fog horn and blasts from water cannons out in right field. San Francisco took a commanding two game lead after Matt Cain held the Rangers' bats at bay in a 9-0 shutout in Game #2. Cain tossed 7.2-scoreless frames to extend his postseason scoreless innings total to 21.1 frames, while Edgar Renteria led the offense as he homered and drove in three runs.

The only mishap for the Giants was during Game #3 as they fell to the Rangers 4-2 at Texas. However, the team resorted back to their pitching heavy strategy in Game #4 as rookie Madison Bumgarner took to the mound and fired off 8.0-shutout innings as the Giants shut out the Rangers 4-0 on Halloween night. Huff (two-run home run) and Buster Posey (solo home run) supplied the club with enough offense as the team was one game away from winning their first Championship in over 54 years.

Lincecum and World Series MVP Renteria helped deliver the title in Game #5 as Lincecum outdueled Cliff Lee in a game that was scoreless until Renteria hit a three-run home run with two outs in the 7th inning. Lincecum defeated Lee for the second time in a week, allowing just three hits over 8.0 innings while recording 10 strikeouts. The game was scoreless until Cody Ross and Juan Uribe both singled to open the seventh inning before Huff laid down the first sacrifice bunt of his career to move the runners. Renteria stepped to the plate and sent a 2-0 pitch over the left-center field wall silencing a sold out crowd of 52,045. Brian Wilson was summoned for the 9th and retired Josh Hamilton on a called 3rd strike, getting Vladimir Guerrero on a grounder to shortstop and then struck out Nelson Cruz to cap the best season in San Francisco Giants history.

2012 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS vs. DETROIT TIGERS
(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 0)

Playing in the World Series for the 19th time in franchise history and the fifth time since moving to San Francisco in 1958, the Giants were set to face the Detroit Tigers, the first time these two storied franchises had ever met in a postseason series.

Pablo Sandoval and Barry Zito both shined for the Giants in Game #1 as Sandoval hit three home runs, and joined Reggie Jackson, Babe Ruth and Albert Pujols as the only players to accomplish that in the Fall Classic, and Zito outdueled Justin Verlander, the reigning Cy Young winner, as the Giants won 8-3. Sandoval homered in his first three at-bats, hitting a solo shot in the 1st inning, a two-run blast in the 3rd that set off the fog horns and capped it with yet another solo shot to center that sent the festive AT&T Park crowd into a frenzy.

In Game #2, Madison Bumgarner tossed 7.0-scoreless innings, then the Giants took advantage of a bunt that stayed fair to scratch out the go-ahead run in a 2-0 win for a 2-0 advantage in the Series.

The Giants took a commanding 3-0 lead in the Fall Classic with a 2-0 win on a chilly night in Detroit in Game #3. SF won their franchise-record sixth straight post-season game as Ryan Vogelsong blanked the Tigers for 5.2 innings and Gregor Blanco hit an RBI triple and Brandon Crawford drove him home with a single in the 2nd inning. The Giants became the eighth team to post consecutive World Series shutouts and the first to accomplish the feat since the 1966 Baltimore Orioles.

Nearly knocked out in the playoffs time and time again, the Giants completed a four game sweep of the Tigers to win their second title in three seasons. Marco Scutaro's go-ahead single with two outs in the 10th inning lifted the Giants to a 4-3, 10-inning victory. Sergio Romo got Triple Crown winner Miguel Cabrera to look at strike three for the final out and the Giants finished the month of October with seven straight wins and their seventh World Series championship.

2014 – SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS

(GIANTS WIN SERIES, 4 GAMES TO 3)

Backed by the eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner, the Giants beat the Kansas City Royals in seven games to capture their third championship in five years.

Kansas City hadn't lost in this postseason before the Series, but the Giants ended that streak at eight games with a 7-1 win in Game #1. SF scored three times in the 1st inning off James Shields; Pablo Sandoval hit an RBI double and Hunter Pence crushed a two-run homer to right-center. Bumgarner carried a shutout into the 7th before Salvador Perez homered, ending Bumgarner's World Series scoreless-innings streak at 21 and his road postseason scoreless-innings streak at 32.2. His three-hit, 7.0-inning performance gave the Giants the jump in the Series.

Gregor Blanco opened Game #2 by jumping on a 3-2 pitch from Yordano Ventura and jolting it over the wall in right. That lead was short-lived as the Royals scored single runs in the 1st and 2nd innings off Jake Peavy. The game was 2-2 in the 6th when the Royals put a five-spot on the board and finished it off with a 7-2 win.

Tim Hudson, made his first World Series appearance in Game #3 and retired 12 in a row in one stretch – but took the loss. The Royals scratched out a run in the 1st and added two in the 6th, the final run scoring on Eric Hosmer's single off Javier Lopez. Michael Morse's pinch-hit RBI double keyed the Giants' two-run 6th, but that would be the extent of SF's offense. Kansas City relievers Kelvin Herrera, Brandon Finnegan, Wade Davis and Greg Holland combined for four hitless innings.

Ineffective pitching by Ryan Vogelsong and bad defense by the Giants allowed the Royals to score four two-out runs in the third to grab a 4-1 edge in Game #4.

However, another three shutout innings from Yusmeiro Petit, enabled the Giants to mount their comeback. The Giants scored one in the 3rd and two in the 5th to tie the game. Joe Panik's two-run double highlighted a four-run 7th, and helped the Giants secure an 11-4 win.

The Giants' final home game of the postseason was highlighted by Bumgarner, who threw another four-hit shutout to become the Giants' first pitcher since 1962 to throw a complete game (Billy Pierce) and shutout (Jack Sanford) in the World Series.

In Game #6, the Royals scored seven runs in the 2nd inning to put the game away early. Yordano Ventura held the Giants to three hits in seven innings, setting up Game 7.

Sandoval went 3-for-3 and scored twice, Morse drove in two runs and Jeremy Affeldt earned the win with 2.1 innings of shutout relief. However, it was Bumgarner who stole the show for the Giants and helped the team win its eighth championship. On just two days' rest, he entered the game in the 5th inning. After allowing a single to Omar Infante, the first batter he faced, Bumgarner retired the next 14 hitters. With two outs in the 9th, Alex Gordon lifted a single into left-center that Blanco misplayed. Gordon wound up at third, 90 feet from tying the game. On a 2-2 pitch, Bumgarner got Salvador Perez on a foul pop clutched by Sandoval, who then collapsed in joy. Bumgarner, who had been the NLCS MVP, was the only choice for Series MVP. He went 2-0 with a save and gave up all of one run and nine hits in 21 innings.

Oracle Park Facts & Figures

Opening Date: April 11, 2000

Design: Classic urban ballpark with an old-time feel and all the amenities of modern ballparks. Inspired by Wrigley Field and Fenway Park and modeled after Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field and Coors Field.

Construction: Commenced on December 11, 1997. Construction lasted 28 months, with Opening Day on April 11, 2000.

Name Change: Ballpark originally opened as Pacific Bell Park; name was changed to SBC Park on January 1, 2004; changed to AT&T Park on March 1, 2006 and then the name was changed to Oracle Park on January 10, 2019.

Financing: Oracle Park, the first privately financed Major League ballpark to be built in 38 years, cost $357 million. The financing plan included $172 million from naming rights, other sponsorships, pouring rights, concession rights and the selling of charter seats; a $170 million bank loan; and $15 million in tax increment financing from the City's Redevelopment Agency.

LEED Certification: In 2019, Oracle Park achieved LEED Platinum Certification for Existing Building Operations and Management, making Oracle Park the first Major League Baseball stadium to achieve this honor. The certification was achieved through numerous greening and sustainability programs the park has implemented and refined throughout the years since its first LEED Silver Certification in 2010.

Green Glove: Major League Baseball named the San Francisco Giants as recipient of the 2023 Green Glove Award, which recognizes the MLB Club with the highest waste diversion rate, nearly reaching 100 percent. The Giants, who collected nine consecutive awards between 2008 and 2016, have won each of the last two awards, giving them 14 in 17 seasons.

Oracle Park Public Address Announcer

Carolyn McArdle

McArdle is entering her first full season as SF's Public Address Announcer after the Giants named her Oracle Park PA announcer on July 26, 2024. With over 20 years of Bay Area radio experience, McCardle joined the Giants from their Triple-A affiliate Sacramento River Cats, where she served as the PA announcer for five years between 2020-2024. She has been a fixture on iHeart radio's 98.1 The Breeze as the morning show co-host since it started in 2016 and also serves as the station's music director. McCardle began her sports PA career in 2018 at University of the Pacific, where she worked softball games. Oracle Park Statues

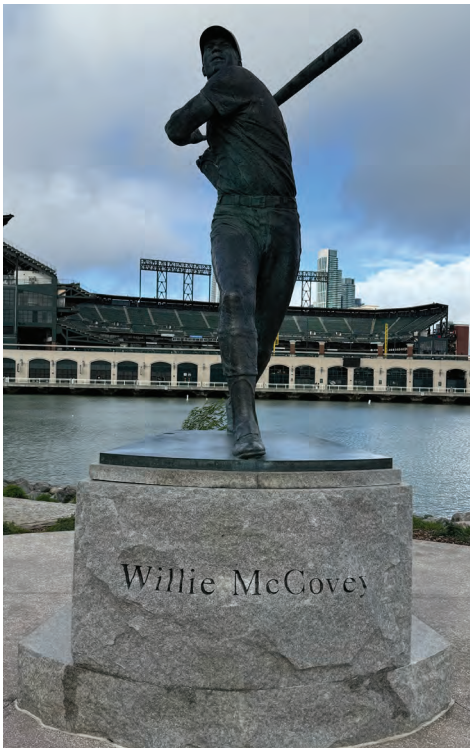
Since the opening of Oracle Park in 2000, the San Francisco Giants have dedicated five statues of their greatest players donning a Giants uniform. Sculptures of Hall of Famers Willie Mays, Willie McCovey, Juan Marichal, Orlando Cepeda and Gaylord Perry were created by well-known American sculptor William Behrends and have been placed outside of Oracle Park for everyone to enjoy.

Behrends' portrait sculptures have been widely praised for their likeness, quality of detail and sensitive evocation of character. Unlike many other sculptors, Mr. Behrends was personally involved in every phase of the creation of the five bronze sculptures, including research, molding and bronzing.

March 31, 2000 – The Giants unveiled a nine-foot bronze sculpture of Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, located at the corner of Third and King Streets. The statue depicts Mays in the graceful conclusion of his powerful swing. The sculpture was developed over a 12-month period.



May 4, 2003 – A nine-foot tall bronze statue of Giants Hall of Fame first baseman Willie McCovey was unveiled. When unveiled, the statue was featured at the northeast portion of Oracle Park, which was officially designated as McCovey Point by the San Francisco Port Commission. Upon the building of the Mission Rock neighborhood, the statue was relocated to its current spot just across McCovey Cove. The statue of Willie McCovey pays tribute to a man who exemplifies the spirit and leadership shown by many of those who have worn the Giants uniform.

May 21, 2005 – Former Giants great and Hall of Fame pitcher Juan Marichal had his statue dedicated in 2005. The nine-foot bronze statue is located at Oracle Park's Lefty O'Doul Plaza and features Marichal's famous high-leg kick.

September 6, 2008 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame first baseman Orlando Cepeda. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second Street entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays a youthful and smiling Cepeda.

August 13, 2016 – The Giants dedicated a bronze statue in honor of Hall of Fame pitcher Gaylord Perry. The statue, which stands at nine feet tall on a five foot base, is located at the Second and King Streets entrance to Oracle Park. The sculpture portrays Perry's intensity and focus on the mound at the point of his follow through.

Giants Portwalk Plaques

There have been countless memorable on-field moments at Oracle Park since it opened its doors ahead of the 2000 season. Some of the best of those moments have been given a plaque out on the Portwalk beyond right field walking from the right field line towards center field. In total there are 26 plaques on the Portwalk with the most recent being laid to commemorate the 100th Splash Hit Homer by a Giant, which was hit by LaMonte Wade Jr. on June 2, 2023. ATTENDANCE FACTS

2024 Attendance Notes

- The Giants averaged 33,097 fans per game at Oracle Park, a 7.2% increase from the 2023 season. San Francisco's total attendance ranked 12th in MLB and its average ranked 10th. The Giants had 13 home sellouts in 2024 with the largest crowd being 41,187 on September 1 vs. Miami.

Other Attendance Notes

- SF's yearly total attendance has been above the Major League Baseball average total attendance per team in each year since 2000.
- The Giants have finished in the Top 5 in attendance 14 times since moving into Oracle Park (2000-2005, 2011-2018).
- The Giants' NL-record sellout streak ended on July 17, 2017. 530 consecutive regular season dates, plus 25 dates in the postseason, for a total of 555, were sold out. It was the second longest sellout streak in MLB history. The streak began with the last three regular season dates in 2010, starting on October 1, continued through the next six full seasons, through the game of July 9, 2017.
- The old NL sellout streak record was 257 regular season games, plus 16 in the postseason, for a total of 273, by Philadelphia from 2009 to August, 2012. Boston holds the MLB record of 820 straight sellouts (794 regular season, 26 postseason) from 2003 through Opening Day 2013.
- Attendance has topped three million in 17 of the 24 years at Oracle Park, including eight straight years from 2000 through 2007, and also in nine straight years from 2010 through 2018.
- The only teams to draw three million more often than the Giants are the Dodgers (36 times), the Cardinals (25), and the Yankees (24). All these teams play in ballparks with a higher capacity than Oracle Park.
- In 2015, the Giants surpassed 50 million in attendance at Oracle Park, reaching this level faster than at any ballpark in Major League history. This total was achieved in the park's 16th season, and on the 1,261st regular season date played there.
- The old record was held by Baltimore, who reached 50 million at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1,311 dates, and in that park's 17th season. San Francisco, Baltimore, Colorado, and Toronto are the only teams to reach 50 million in attendance at a ballpark in less than 1,500 regular season dates.
- The smallest crowd in a full-capacity game was 18,785 on July 6, 2021 vs. St. Louis. Prior to the Covid pandemic in 2020, the only games that drew less than 30,000 at Oracle Park have been in 2009 (12 dates), 2010 (five dates) and 2019 (14 dates).
- In their first year at Oracle Park, the Giants drew 3,244,167 (40,051 per date, all sellouts). This was up 1,165,768 (56.1%) from Candlestick Park in 1999. That increase in total attendance was the 5th best gain in Major League history.
- In the 24 years with attendance (2000-19, 2021-24) at Oracle Park, the Giants have drawn 73,419,297, an average of 3,059,137 per season, and 37,099 per date. In this same period, only the Dodgers (85,355,782), Yankees (83,373,099), and Cardinals (78,099,532) have outdrawn the Giants. All 2000-2021 home ballparks of these 3 teams have, and had, a higher capacity than Oracle Park.

SPLASH HIT FACTOIDS

- Carlos Beltran's "splash hit" on September 14, 2011 marked his 300th career home run.
- Ryan Klesko and Joc Pederson are the only players to have splash hits as both a Giant and as a visitor.
- Joc Pederson is the only player to record a splash hit for three different teams (Giants, Dodgers & Cubs).
- Tyler Colvin's "splash hit" on May 12, 2014 was also his first hit for the Giants and came on his first at-bat at Oracle Park since joining the team.
- During the postseason, the Giants have one "splash hit" (Bonds) and opponents have recorded two (Rick Ankiel & Bryce Harper).
- Of visiting players who have hit the cove, Carlos Delgado, Adam LaRoche and Max Muncy have performed the feat the most, doing it three times each.
- Daulton Varsho became the first visiting player to hit his first career home run with a "splash hit".
- Mike Yastrzemski became the first to hit two walk-off "splash hits" with all four in Oracle Park history coming against left-handed pitchers.
- LaMonte Wade Jr. recorded the Giants' 100th "splash hit" in ballpark history as he lead off the bottom of the 1st inning on June 2 against the Orioles.
- On May 29, 2023, Jack Suwinski became the second player in Oracle Park history to have multiple splash hits in a game, joining Barry Bonds - May 10, 2000 and May 18, 2002. They were the first two splash hits of his career.
- On September 15, 2024, Heliot Ramos became the first right-handed hitter in Oracle Park history to hit a splash hit. The feat coincided with Roberto Clemente Day and the Giants' celebration of life for Orlando Cepeda. Ramos, a fellow Puerto Rican, wore Clemente's No. 21 as he hit his 21st homer of the year for SF.

ENGLISH BROADCASTERS

Jon Miller

Jon Miller, honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the "Voice of the Giants", enters his 29th season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio, NBC Bay Area and NBC Sports Bay Area. 2024 marked the 50th anniversary of Miller's first Major League broadcast when he debuted with the Oakland A's in 1974. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 16th World Series in 2014 as the Giants won it all for the third time in five years. Miller was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame in 2014. In 1990 when ESPN TV first began its coverage of Major League Baseball, Miller was chosen as the first play-by-play commentator on the award-winning ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week broadcast. Miller and his Hall of Fame partner, Joe Morgan, teamed up on the prime time telecast for 21 seasons. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He has broadcast 16 World Series overall. In 2020 Miller was named "one of the 50 most significant off-field figures in baseball in the past 50 years" by the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR). It was one of a series of such lists published as part of the 50th Anniversary of SABR's founding. He was also nominated six times for an "ACE" award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 - the first ESPN play-by-play announcer to win the award, and 1996. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the American Sportscasters Association (ASA) in 1998. That same year, Miller was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association of America (NSSAA). In 2018, Miller received a Northern California Emmy Award, the fourth local Emmy for his Giants television work. Prior to his work on ESPN, Miller broadcast an occasional game on NBC-TV with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola. Miller spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Giants. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). Miller got his first baseball play-by-play job in 1974 at age 22 calling radio and TV for that year's World Series Champion Oakland Athletics. The Bay Area native has also broadcast NHL hockey, NBA basketball and championship soccer games on national television in his distinguished career. In 2018, Miller was inducted into the College of San Mateo (CA) Hall of Fame. Miller began his broadcasting career as a student at CSM and broadcast baseball, football and basketball games on KCSM, the college's radio and TV stations. Jon and his wife, Janine, reside in San Francisco. They are parents to three daughters, Misha, Holly (married to Paul Gallagher) and Emilie, and a son, Alexander (married to Christina Vanoverbeck).

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, a 13-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 41st season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 32nd consecutive year in the NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2025. He was named California's 2025 and 2020 Sportscaster of the Year as selected by the National Sports Media Association. Kuiper was one of 10 finalists for the 2025, 2024, 2023 and 2014 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Kuiper and his NBCSBA broadcast partner, Mike Krukow, were both named as one of 10 finalists on the 2025 and 2024 Frick Award ballot. Kuiper emerged as one of the top three fan selections in online voting in 2014. The former 11-year big league infielder has received 13 local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (9); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (2). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper's scorecards from Barry Bonds' historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson's 300th career victory, Matt Cain's perfect game in 2012 and the scorecard from Gaylord Perry Day (August 13, 2016 - BAL @ SF) are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native previously served as a board member of the Giants Community Fund and was a member of the Junior Giants Committee and the former Chair of the Junior Giants Glove Drive. Kuiper lends his time and support to ARF (Animal Rescue Foundation, http://www.arflife.org). Kuiper, along with his NBCSBA partner, Mike Krukow, served as an ambassador for the UTAC (Until There's A Cure) campaign in 2023. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper resides in Danville. He and his late wife, Michelle, are parents to two children, Cole (married to Rachel Jensen) and Dannon (married to Zach Rease), and have two granddaughters, Andy and Kit.

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 35th season in the television booth, and his 31st full season on the radio side. A 13-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on NBC Sports Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow was one of the finalists for the 2025, 2024 and 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Krukow and his NBCSBA broadcast partner, Duane Kuiper, were both named as one of 10 finalists on the 2025 and 2024 Frick Award ballot. He was named California's 2023, 2017 and 2015 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association (NSMA). The former big league pitcher has received 13 local Emmy awards: On-Camera talent (7); Sports Live Broadcast (2); Sporting Event/Game-Live (2); Arts/Entertainment-Program/Special (1); and Executive Producer Baseball Ballet (1). In 2021, he was inducted into the National Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame. Ford C. Frick Award Winners

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

Mel Allen and Red Barber were the first two recipients in 1978. A single winner has been selected in each year following.

The annual Frick Award ballot is created by a subcommittee of the voting electorate. A new election cycle has been established starting with the 2017 Award, rotating annually between Major League Markets (team-specific announcers); National Voices (broadcasters whose contributions were realized on a national level); and Broadcasting Beginnings (early team voices and pioneers of baseball broadcasting). This cycle will repeat every three years.

The Frick Award Committee casts ballots during November, and the results are announced during the Baseball Winter Meetings in December. The Frick Award electorate is comprised of the living Frick Award recipients and four broadcast historians/columnists.

Voters are asked to base their selections on "Commitment to excellence, quality of broadcasting abilities, reverence within the game, popularity with fans, and recognition by peers." To be considered, an active or retired broadcaster must have a minimum of 10 years of continuous major league broadcast service with a ball club, network, or a combination of the two.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during Hall of Fame Weekend. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Below is a list of Giants broadcasters who have been recipients of the Ford C. Frick Award:

Russ Hodges

Frick Award Winner: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lindsey Nelson

Frick Award Winner: 1988

Nelson spent three seasons on the airwaves with the Giants from 1979-1981 after spending 17 seasons working in the New York Mets radio booth from 1962-1978...was nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Day" for calling the play-by-play of the Cotton Bowl Classic for 26 seasons on CBS...Nelson also called many Army-Navy games and was also the first announcer during the first NFL game on CBS that used instant replay where he had to remind viewers the programming wasn't live...was the Ford C. Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

Frick Award Winner: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks–Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Pacific Bell Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

Frick Award Winner: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years...broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

Frick Award Winner: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974...Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network...he became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics...Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

2024 Community Relations Highlights

Each season, the Giants strive to serve our community by raising awareness for important causes, providing memorable experiences for our fans and inspiring the next generation of baseball and softball players. Here are some of our favorite moments from the 2024 season that celebrate the incredible people that make up the Giants Family.

40+	145+	200+	1K+	103K+	$500K+
Field Visits	Player Appearances	Awareness Assets	Signed Items for Fundraising Assistance	Game Tickets Donated	Financial Support

Rickwood Field in Birmingham, AL is the oldest ballpark in America. On June 20, 2024, the San Francisco Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals played the first game of their regular season series at the historic site. The regular-season game paid tribute to the Negro Leagues and to baseball's greatest player - Hall of Famer, Giants legend, Alabama native and Birmingham Black Barons star: Willie Mays. The Giants hosted a number of community-based events to pay tribute - including two PLAY BALL clinics, a hospital visit to Children's of Alabama, a Willie Mays mural dedication and a legacy gift presentation to A.G. Gaston Boys & Girls Club. MLB's PLAY BALL event at Regions Field, current home of the Birmingham Barons, brought together 100+ local children who each received coaching, plastic bat and ball sets, T-Shirts and more. Leading up to the Rickwood game, the Giants Community Fund and the Boys & Girls Clubs of San Francisco hosted a PLAY BALL event at the Willie Mays Clubhouse where 200+ youth - including Junior Giants - participated in a clinic led by Giants players and learned about the history of the Negro Leagues.

30 YEARS OF UNTIL THERE'S A CURE

The 2024 season marked the 30th anniversary of the Giants teaming up with the Until There's a Cure (UTAC) Foundation - becoming the first professional sports team to host an AIDS benefit game. To honor the milestone, the Giants held a special pregame ceremony featuring representatives from the UTAC Foundation, the Giants Community Fund and GILEAD, who were joined by Dusty Baker and Stacey Beck - wife of the late Rod Beck. Since its inception 30 years ago, there has been over $2 million raised for HIV and AIDS research.

PEDIATRIC CANCER AWARENESS

Annually, alongside MLB, the Giants host patients and their families as well as oncology nurses and doctors for the Pediatric Cancer Awareness game - presented by Toyota and supported by UCSF Health - at the ballpark, and a special pregame ceremony is held to honor the patients in attendance. This year, the First Pitch, Play Ball Kid, Game Ball Delivery and Honorary Captain were all performed by patients - with a special bell ringing ceremony on the field to signify a child's end of cancer treatment, representing the strength and courage of all who have faced a cancer diagnosis.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

Mental health strongly influences personal wellbeing and there are additional challenges that professional athletes face when navigating mental wellness. Through their support of local communities, the Giants provide support resources and facilitate open forums about suicide prevention, mental wellness and healthy habits. The Giants annual Mental Health Awareness game included a panel with experts and advocates, focused on engaging with the community - notably, supporting young people who are advocating for mental wellness amongst their peers and building community for veterans who may be isolated or in need of support after their service.

FENTANYL AWARENESS

In collaboration with Tosh's Story and Song for Charlie, the Giants hosted the first-ever Fentanyl Awareness Day at Oracle Park - welcoming families impacted by counterfeit medications and providing them with complimentary game tickets. Logan Webb joined a pregame field visit - an opportunity for all to share stories about loved ones who have been impacted. The San Francisco Department of Public Health was stationed in the Community Clubhouse and A Song for Charlie utilized the Community Spotlight. The Giants organized a fundraising ticket link for Tosh's Story as well.

MILITARY SUPPORT

2024 marked the 20th anniversary of the Salute to Military initiative - a gameday when the Giants pay tribute to service members, veterans and military families through community initiatives, in-game activations and philanthropic support. For Armed Forces Weekend and Memorial Day, Giants players, their families and the military community worked with local non-profits - Heart & Armor and Swords to Plowshares - to build 200+ essential-needs kits created for veterans experiencing homelessness in the Bay Area. The Giants and Operation: Care & Comfort provided co-branded commissary gift cards for service members and their families. In total, the Giants donated over 32,000 tickets to military members, veterans and their families in 2024.

GIANTS COMMUNITY FUND

The Giants Community Fund, the 501(c)(3) public charity of the Giants, uses baseball and softball to promote health, education and character development to propel youth in underserved regions to be positive forces in their communities. Through a variety of free youth baseball, softball and scholarship programs, including Junior Giants and Willie Mays Scholars, the Fund empowers youth to be Giants on the field, in the classroom and in the community.
